Changes to the procedure for state registration of property

It is reported that the RF Federation Council has approved draft Federal Law No. 597863-6 "On the state registration of property". In particular, the creation of a Unified State Register of Property is envisaged, which will include information not only about the registration of rights, but also about cadastral registration. Furthermore, the deadlines for cadastral registration and state registration of rights to property and transactions therewith shall be shortened. The Federal Law enters into force from 1 January 2017 with the exception of regulations with a different date of entry into force.
