Excise duty on sparkling wine to be raised by Russian State Duma

The Russian State Duma Committee on Budget and Taxes approved the proposed increase of excise duties on sparkling wines in 2017.

According to the proposal, the rate of excise duty on sparkling wines with protected geographical indications will increase by RUB 5 (from RUB 14 to RUB 19 per litre), on other sparkling wines — by RUB 9 (from RUB 27 to RUB 36 per litre).

The increase is expected in 2017 with no further upward adjustments planned for the next two years.

The text of the proposal has not yet been officially published.
