Sales tax instead of VAT for foreign e-retailers: initiative by National E-Commerce Association

The National E-Commerce Association called for introducing a sales tax of 8 to 10 percent for foreign e-retailers as an alternative to the widely discussed VAT initiative.

According to the Association, the imposition of VAT on foreign e-sellers will trigger extra expenses on tax administration, expansion of grey distribution channels and possible exit of such e-sellers from the market.

The Association also suggests setting a duty-free import threshold at EUR 200 per parcel (instead of current EUR 1,000).
