Possible amendments to draft legislation clarifying the rules governing legal relations between food product suppliers and retail chains proposed

Amendments to draft law # 704631-6, which would reduce the limit on the overall amount of remuneration payable to retailers by food product suppliers, have been prepared. According to the proposed amendments, within the first three months of 2017, retailers and their suppliers will have the right to terminate supply agreements unilaterally should they suffer substantial losses in revenue due to implementation of the draft law.

The text of the amendments has not yet been officially published.

For more details about the draft law, please refer to the LT issues dated 20 April 2016 and 27 April 2016.
