Russian Ministry of Finances initiates plan for a unified insurance contribution

The Ministry of Finance has prepared a Law Amendment Concept, which proposes a separate chapter in the Russian Tax Code that introduces a unified insurance contribution. Additionally, the authority suggests abolishing the reduced insurance contribution rate for high salaries and reducing the overall contribution rate from the current 30% to 28%-29%. The Ministry of Labor has already proposed an alternative contribution plan that will increase the rate of insurance contribution gradually for high salaries from 2017 until 2021 (See details in the LT of 24 February 2016).
