Possible reduction of the corporate property tax in Moscow

The Government of Moscow suggested to reduce from 1 January 2016 the corporate property tax on office and retail real estate calculated from the cadastral value. In particular, it is suggested to set the corporate property tax at the level of 1.3% in 2016 instead of 1.5%, 1.4% in 2017 instead of 1.8%, and 1.5% in 2018 instead of 2%. It is also suggested to extend the list of preferential categories objects to which tax rate is applied with coefficient 0.1 by including retail stores, cultural and entertaining objects, objects used for provision of everyday services, offices of banks and tour agencies rendering services to individuals.
