

Home-owners allowed to deregister foreign citizens that moved out: relevant bill signed into law

Federal Law No. 257 'On amending Articles 8 and 23 of the Federal Law 'On immigration registration of foreign citizens and stateless persons in the Russian Federation' as regards the deregistration of foreign citizens and stateless persons from their place of stay in the Russian Federation' was signed by the President on July 29.

The law has already been published on the official web-portal of legal information. It will come into force on 11 August 2018.

The law supplements the list of grounds for deregistering a foreign citizen from the place of stay with departure: to do that, the host needs to notify the immigration authorities.

This will mitigate the risks for property owners, who have recently been made responsible for having their foreign tenants registered for immigration purposes.

We recommend informing all property owners of these changes.
