

Bob Contri

Global Leader, Financial Services Industry

New York, USA

bcontri@deloitte.com

Bob Contri is the Global Financial Services Leader for Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (DTTL). In this role Bob is responsible for overseeing DTTL's four global financial services sector groups—banking and securities, insurance, real estate, and investment management—across all of DTTL's businesses and member firms. He is charged with developing and executing the industry's overall strategic direction and go-to-market strategy for the group which includes over 54,000 people in more than 40 countries. In addition, Bob sits on the board of the Deloitte US firm and he leads the global Deloitte relationship for a major financial institution.

Bob has more than 30 years of experience at Deloitte and has extensive global experience working with large clients. Prior to his current role, Bob served as the Deloitte US Financial Services Industry leader.

Throughout Bob's career, he has helped clients in the financial services industry address a range of issues, including strategy, restructuring, regulatory, and culture. His clients have included large regional and multinational organizations.

Bob is a frequent presenter at financial services conferences and client events and has been featured in industry publications offering his views on industry trends and regulation.

Bob has an MBA from Rutgers University and a BA from Gettysburg College. He is based in New York City and is married with three children.
