Deloitte Greenhouse™

Room to grow

Deloitte Greenhouse is where insights are unearthed, ideas spring forward and relationships grow.

It combines a consciously-designed environment with expert facilitation, deep subject matter expertise, analytical insight and the latest thinking on the science of group dynamics.

“Thank you for today, it was a pleasure working through the session with you and taking advantage of your collaborative ‘Greenhouse’ space, it really helps to set everyone in the right ‘innovative’ state of mind. We achieved a lot in one day and I look forward to seeing the outputs.”

Eden Britt,
Head, HR Analytics, Standard Chartered Bank

Our Approach

In a world of constant change, bold strategic decisions and agile execution matter more than ever.

Leaders view the present and the near future as unique moments that determine more than profitability and growth – they define future success and failure, and perhaps even survival. In this complex and rapidly-evolving environment, leaders and their teams require a new approach:

In the Greenhouse, structured sessions bring participants together to build consensus and confidence in clear and actionable outcomes, achieving in a matter of hours what might otherwise have taken months.

By taking participants outside of their everyday environments, the Greenhouse encourages idea generation, facilitates interaction and enables rapid prototyping of solutions, helping leaders and organisations to forge new paths.

Our Formula

Research-Based Content

Frameworks built on empirical data, research, and conversations with SMAs.

Immersive Methods & Exercises

Exercises based on behavioral research, team dynamics, and conversations with your people.

Relevant Subject Matter Advisors

Diverse perspectives from experts selected because they know your challenge, industry or business.

Experienced Facilitators

Specialising in intervention, disruption, alignment and consensus.

Consciously-Designed Environment

Movable panels, flexible furniture, and an intimate space built to spark conversation.

Cutting-Edge Data Analytics and Visualisations

Interactive, intuitive, insight-rich visualisations that make data come to life.

Deliver a breakthrough experience

We work with you to ensure the business issues are tackled with the right objectives, participants and content to achieve the best results.

Turn “show and tell” into “see and do” with hands-on exercises, data-driven insights, and actionable analysis.

Part of a global network of experiential programs and spaces, Deloitte Greenhouse builds on iZones, Client Experience Labs, and Highly Immersive Visual Environments (HIVEs) to propel client relationships and collaboration to a new level.

Heard in the Greenhouse

“It’s the kind of focused thinking our organisation desperately needs to be doing more – the rewards are simply too big to ignore.”

Finance Executive, Oil & Gas

“We will make a year’s worth of progress because of this one day.”

CEO, Public Service Organisation

“Today was an amazing gift to our organization. The effect of traveling through the material with continuous dialogue will help us to move through leadership transition with confidence. The facilitators were excellent. The chemistry of the group was outstanding, with lots of give and take and plenty of differences of opinion.”

Richard Block, Chairman, Consumer Packaging Group, MeadWestvaco Corp (Retired)

Our sessions

Client labs

Make a lasting impression by helping a client to examine a particular challenge or opportunity, build consensus around an actionable plan, and deepen your client relationship in the process.

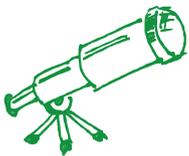

Deloitte internal labs

Improve individual and team dynamics, re-engage with and strengthen client relationships, and drive pursuits to defend and extend our market leadership.

Seed sessions

Team with people across the firm, as well as with clients and alliance partners, to pursue innovative solutions and approaches that push the boundaries. Seed sessions require an innovative mindset while still maintaining a level of practicality.

Analytics training

Help clients to discover the “Art of the Possible” by demystifying analytics through non-technical, hands-on learning and data visualisation for business decision-makers.

“Facilitation is the act of making something easy or easier and to stimulate ideas. The Greenhouse is a proven vehicle in which challenges and opportunities are thoughtfully and expertly facilitated. Over and over again, our clients and our own teams leave the Greenhouse impressed by the content, the discoveries, and the breakthroughs achieved.”

Chaly Mah, CEO Asia Pacific, Deloitte

Case study

Deloitte Greenhouse Singapore recently hosted an analytics strategy workshop for a multi-national oil and gas corporation.

Twenty client executives from IT and business were presented with examples of analytics in action and asked to consider the possibilities for their organisation.

Deloitte's expert facilitators then led the group through interactive exercises to prioritise the most promising opportunities and build consensus around an actionable plan.

The workshop secured enthusiastic and unanimous buy-in from the client's leadership team. This breakthrough experience is expected to result in significant opportunities for the organisation and Deloitte to partner together, further cementing an already strong relationship and extending it to Southeast Asia.
