Cybersphere – a dynamic approach

7 Asia Pacific Cyber Intelligence Centres

2,000+ Asia Pacific Cyber specialists

The cyber threat landscape is continuously evolving. Keeping pace to defend against the latest attack techniques is a major challenge for both private sector and government agencies.

In this new era of cyber everywhere, organisations are called upon to align their priorities and work in concert to drive core business objectives. Cyber is everyone’s responsibility. Clients turn to Deloitte because we can help, because we’ll be there when they need us most, and because we can bring the depth and breadth of the world’s leading professional services organisation.

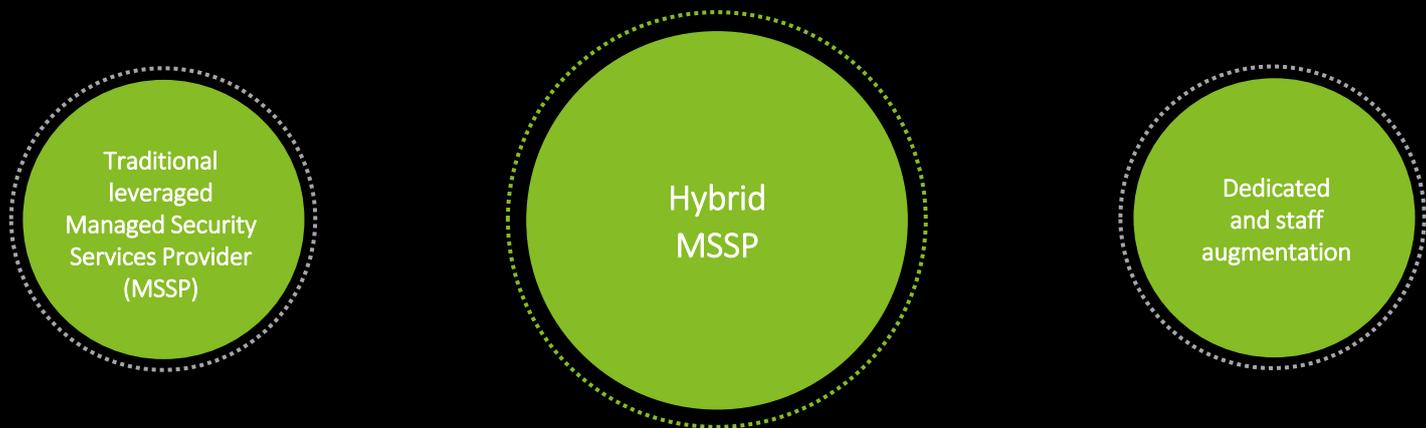

Within Asia Pacific, Deloitte has seven Cyber Intelligence Centres (CICs) to help clients stay ahead of the latest threats and enhance their business resilience.

A flexible delivery model

The Deloitte AP Cybersphere is an innovative, client focused, high value Cyber Managed Services virtual delivery capability across Asia Pacific. Typically there are two models for the provision of managed services: leveraged or dedicated. If required, utilising the Cybersphere, Deloitte can offer a third, flexible and hybrid model giving clients the best of both worlds.

Deloitte works with clients to ensure that the delivery model meets their needs with a combination of on-site, onshore and/or offshore delivery, aligning with client preferences and compliance requirements. The focus is on providing managed services with flexible delivery models to complement and extend clients’ internal cyber defence capabilities.

Cyber Managed Services – security delivered as subscription services

Deloitte Cyber provides enterprise-wide cyber capabilities, working alongside clients to ensure that we advise, implement and operate where they need it most. A blend of sophisticated monitoring technology, advanced analytics, and human intelligence helps clients to detect, analyse, and contain threats before they disrupt business. Our Cyber Managed Services (delivered as subscription) include:

Industry focused risk insights

Deloitte’s heritage in cyber advisory and our integrated business focus uniquely positions our Cyber Managed Services at the intersection of business transformation, regulation, compliance, and cyber defence.

Deloitte invests heavily in sector specific cyber threat research and has developed threat models and detection capabilities specific to each key industry sector. For example, Deloitte has developed tailored detection and response services for Operational Technology (OT) networks in Energy, Resources and Manufacturing, and we provide a converged approach to cyber and fraud monitoring for Financial Services clients.
