Bangladesh

Suspension of all international passenger flights to/from Bangladesh

Civil Aviation Authority of Bangladesh | 11 April 2021

With effect from 12.01 a.m. (BST) on 14 April 2021 until 11.59 p.m. (BST) on 20 April 2021, all international passenger flights to/from Bangladesh shall remain suspended. The only exceptions are medevac, humanitarian/relief, cargo, technical landing (refuelling only) flights, and flights cleared under special considerations. However, passengers travelling to/from Bangladesh on these flights must still present a negative COVID-19 polymerase chain reaction (PCR) test certificate obtained within 72 hours of their flight departure time, and complete a 14-day institutional quarantine at government-nominated facilities or hotels at their own expense. This requirement applies irrespective of whether they have received the COVID-19 vaccination.
