China

Foreigners in Shanghai may book appointments to receive COVID-19 vaccination

Shanghai Municipal People's Government | 23 March 2021

With effect from 29 March 2021, foreigners of the appropriate ages may be eligible to receive the domestically-produced COVID-19 vaccine on the basis that they are informed, voluntary, and willing to be inoculated at their own cost and risk. Those who are covered by medical insurance in China will be entitled to the same treatment as insured Chinese citizens, while those who are not insured will need to bear their own cost of RMB 100 per dose. Vaccination appointments can be booked online through the Jiankang Yun (Health Cloud) application, and more information on the booking process can be found in the link below.

India

Suspension of international commercial flights until 30 April 2021

India Today | 23 March 2021

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) has extended the suspension of scheduled international commercial passenger flights until 30 April 2021. However, these restrictions will not apply to international all-cargo operations and flights specifically approved by the DGCA. Scheduled international flights may also be allowed on selected routes on a case-by-case basis.
