Australia

VAC waiver for Temporary Skill Shortage or Temporary Work (Skilled) visa (subclasses 482 and 457)

Department of Home Affairs | 27 February 2021

The Department of Home Affairs has announced a waiver for the Visa Application Charge (VAC) associated with subsequent applications for people who held a Temporary Skill Shortage visa (TSS) or subclass 457 visa, and were either unable to travel to Australia or had travelled and departed but were unable to return before their visa ceased due to the COVID-19 travel restrictions. This waiver applies to those who held a TSS or subclass 457 visa while travel restrictions were in place and need a new visa to re-enter Australia.

Latest updates on passenger caps

ABC News | 5 February 2021

From 15 February 2021, passenger caps for New South Wales have returned to a weekly cap of 3,010 people and Queensland to 1,000 people. Western Australia remains at reduced capacity at 512. South Australia has increased its cap by 40 people a week to 530 and Victoria by nearly 200 to 1,310, taking the weekly cap to 6,362. The Government's repatriation flights to the Howard Springs facility in the Northern Territory, Canberra, and Hobart do not count under the caps. The two-week quarantine in hotels will also remain regardless of vaccination.
