

Tax technology and tools

Confidence to lead

February 2021

A secure, online, customisable Tax & Legal hub which:

- Simplifies navigation into and between project data, materials, knowledge, and technology products.
- Facilitates efficient collaboration and document sharing across projects, processes, business units, and jurisdictions.
- Visualises essential information via a personalised dashboard and enhances workflow management to maintain control over deadlines, status, and reporting.

- The preparation of tax computations can be burdensome, inefficient, and time-consuming for many companies. This can largely be due to the amount of work required to classify large volumes of data.
- Uses cutting edge AI and bespoke technology to transform the way you perform your tax compliance process. It applies rule sets and machine learning to classify data automatically into tax sensitive categories which can be used to populate draft return or tax pac.
