Tax Measures

Corporate Income Tax

- Reduction of corporate income tax rate from 30% to 20% for new investors in the pharmaceutical and leather industries for five years from 2018/2019 to 2022/2023.
- The Minister responsible for finance will no longer be restricted from providing income tax exemption to government projects financed by non-concessional loans i.e. loans with market based interest rates. The current provisions of the income tax legislation limits the Minister’s power to exempt income derived from such projects.
- Introduction of withholding tax exemption on interest paid on Government loans provided by Banks and Financial Institutions to finance government projects.

VAT

- The following items, which are currently standard rated supplies will be exempt from VAT:
  - Packaging materials produced for use by local manufacturers of pharmaceutical products;
  - Imported animal and poultry feeds additives; and
  - Sanitary pads.
- The Minister for Finance will be given power to provide VAT exemption for Government projects funded by non-concessional loans as well as VAT exemption on agreements entered between the Government of Tanzania and a financial institution/bank that is representing another Government.

Customs Duties

Introduction

- The EAC Member States, through a Pre-Budget Consultation of the respective Finance Ministers, met in Arusha, Tanzania on 4 May 2018 and agreed to effect changes to the Common External Tariff (“CET”) and amend the EAC Customs Management Act, 2004.

  – Reduction of duty rate on PolyVinyl Alcohol [with HS Code 3905.30.00] from 10% to 0%; and – Split of HS Code 8903.99.00 and introduction of HS Code 8903.99.10 to include Motor Boat Ambulance which will have a CET of 0%.

• Amendments to the EAC Customs Management Act, 2004:
  – Import duty exemption on motorcycles for rally cars; and
  – Import duty exemption on various types of motor vehicles for transportation of tourists (including Motor Cars, Sight Seeing Buses and Overland Trucks).
Excise Duties

- Excise duty is levied on importation or production of some non-petroleum products and the rates/amount of duties may change annually to cater for inflation. In general, there are no changes on excise duty for locally produced non-petroleum products.

- Excise duty has been increased on some imported non-petroleum products [amounts in brackets display the level of increase in excise duty]:
  - Imported water including mineral waters containing added sugar or other matter of flavor [by TZS 3.05 per litre].
  - Imported fruit juices [by TZS 11 per litre];
  - Imported beers [by TZS 38.25 per litre];
  - Imported non-alcoholic beers including energy drinks and non-alcoholic beverages [by TZS 28.05 per litre];
  - Wine produced with more than 25 percent of imported grapes [by TZS 117 per litre];
  - Imported spirits [by TZS 174.05 per litre];
  - Cigarettes containing domestic tobacco less than 75 percent [by TZS 2,661.75 per thousand cigarettes]; and
  - Excise Duty on cut rag or cut filler [by TZS 1,344.4 per kilogram].

- Introduction of excise duty of TZS 200 per litre on wine produced with domestic fruits (such as banana, rozera, tomato etc.) other than grapes with contents of at least 75 percent domestic fruits.

- Excise duty will now be managed through the use of Electronic Tax Stamps from 1 September 2018. This is meant to stem revenue leakages as it will enable the revenue authority to obtain production data on a timely basis from manufacturers.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Tax amnesty

- The Government intends to introduce 100% tax amnesty on interest and penalties to encourage compliance. The amnesty will be valid from 1 July 2018 to 31 December 2018.
