Analytics Summit

Deloitte in India Analytics Summit 2017 showcases the "Art of possibilities"

The 4th edition of the Analytics Summit for Deloitte in India was held during May 24 and May 25. The event brought over 1,200 professionals together under one roof to explore the "Art of possibilities" in the rapidly evolving world of analytics. The two-day action packed summit hosted global leaders and vendors and held exclusive speaker sessions through various competitions and forums. The Summit enabled extensive cross functional collaboration and also showcased analytics success stories through interactive sessions with vendors and cutting edge start up teams. There were 13 booths set up during the event that covered Virtual Reality, Cloud, Visualization, Robotic Automation, Haptic Devices, and End User Experience.

The summit's analytics challenges and hackathons saw the best of Deloitte analytics demonstrate exemplary depth and expertise in the field of data science, machine learning, and cognitive analytics.

This summit is the perfect example of how we are bringing synergies together to make a greater impact that matters!

Code Gladiator

Deloitte wins 'Coding Powerhouse of India' title in Code Gladiators 2017 challenge

Deloitte won the 'Coding Powerhouse of India' title in the Tech Gig Code Gladiators 2017 Challenge. The victory signified the potential of our technology capabilities and the culture of innovation and passion that we thrive on.

Cosponsored by Times Group Network, the contest challenged millions of coders across the globe to solve unique problem statements through 52 programming languages. All participants had to successfully complete three levels of problems through two rounds and a select few made it to the grand finale. Twelve of our coders made it to the finals to compete with 150 other coders from across 250 plus corporate firms and multiple universities through an eight-hour final round hackathon held in Bengaluru on June 9, 2017.
