Helping you quickly and confidently realize an agile, scalable solution

For over a decade, Deloitte and Coupa Software have worked with enterprises across the world to help them transform their procurement operations and unleash growth and value across their organizations. Our revolutionary approach and on-site delivery model helps you rapidly achieve a scalable procurement solution that allows you to unlock cost savings, reduce risk, and improve decision-making.

Based on our extensive experience, our time-tested, process-driven methodology, and our close alignment with Coupa, we developed these Deloitte's Coupa Accelerators to help you achieve procurement transformation in months—not years. We understand what's at stake, the challenges, and the pitfalls, and our Accelerators document the leading practices that have supported Coupa deployments and procurement transformation for some of the largest and most complex global enterprises.

Accelerated Transformation, Sustainable Value

Deloitte's Coupa accelerators are rooted in our broad experience and process-driven methodology. They can help expedite your implementation with:

- A vetted design that provides flexibility and scalability, developed with Deloitte's interactive, agile "workshop" method for engaging stakeholders
- A compressed implementation timeline by fast-tracking high-stakes decisions and reducing or eliminating the need for redesign/rework

The result is an end-to-end solution that yields an effective technology deployment while incorporating relevant business processes, laying the foundation for sustainable, long-term procurement success.
