2012 Carl H. Lindner Award for Entrepreneurial and Civic Spirit

The eighth annual Carl H. Lindner Award for Entrepreneurial and Civic Spirit is being presented to a business leader that personifies the leadership, business success, and civic involvement, which was characterized by Carl Lindner in our community. As we continue to celebrate the life and accomplishments of Mr. Linder, we are very pleased to present this year's award in his name to someone who shares one of his passions ... The Cincinnati Reds. The 2012 recipient of the Carl H. Lindner Award for Entrepreneurial and Civic Spirit is Mr. Robert H. Castellini.

Robert (Bob) H. Castellini is chairman of the Castellini Group of Companies, one of the largest fresh produce distributors in the United States, in addition to being the principal owner of the Cincinnati Reds and serving as the club's chief executive officer. Bob earned a bachelor's in economics from Georgetown University before obtaining his MBA from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. He served two years in the Army, achieving the rank of first lieutenant and receiving an Army Commendation Medal. Bob's contributions to the community include positions on the boards of Xavier University and 3CDC and as Chairman of the Joint Banks Steering Committee. He also was the past President of the Queen City Club, the Cincinnati Zoo, Tri-Health, Good Samaritan Hospital, and the Commercial and Commonwealth Clubs. Bob and his wife Susie have four children and 12 grandchildren.
