

Business Insurance Claim Consulting (BIC)

Assisting on the road to recovery

Overview

Deloitte's BIC consulting practice has significant experience assisting clients with large, complicated insurance claims and can provide assistance throughout the insurance recovery process. Our goal is to help our clients prepare their claims and understand the claims process and their options. We assist with the preparation of a defensible and fully documented claim in an efficient manner, often resulting in more timely reimbursement from the insurance carriers.

Pertinent Service Offerings

- Development of an overall claim strategy
- Assistance in securing cash advances/interim payments
- Calculation of property damage, extra expense and business interruption claims (including contingent business interruption) including proper level of documentation
- Insurance claim preparation and submission
- Provide advice so that our clients can make informed decisions on potential claim agreements and settlements
