The IRS issues Chapter 4 Regulations on verification and certification requirements

Closing the distance

The Internal Revenue Service has issued the Regulations relating to the verification and certification requirements for sponsoring entities of foreign financial institutions and certain non-financial foreign entities, trustees of certain trustee-documented trusts, registered deemed-compliant foreign financial institutions, and financial institutions that implement consolidated compliance programs. The regulations are expected to be made available online at the web page of the Federal Register on March 25, 2019.

We will provide a more detailed write-up regarding the new regulations in the coming days.
This alert contains general information only and Deloitte is not, by means of this alert, rendering accounting, business, financial, investment, legal, tax, or other professional advice or services. This alert is not a substitute for such professional advice or services, nor should it be used as a basis for any decision or action that may affect your business. Before making any decision or taking any action that may affect your business, you should consult a qualified professional advisor. Deloitte shall not be responsible for any loss sustained by any person who relies on this alert.

About Deloitte
Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited, a UK private company limited by guarantee ("DTTL"), its network of member firms, and their related entities. DTTL and each of its member firms are legally separate and independent entities. DTTL (also referred to as "Deloitte Global") does not provide services to clients. In the United States, Deloitte refers to one or more of the US member firms of DTTL, their related entities that operate using the "Deloitte" name in the United States and their respective affiliates. Certain services may not be available to attest clients under the rules and regulations of public accounting. Please see www.deloitte.com/about to learn more about our global network of member firms.