

Multistate tax controversy services

Apportionment issues

Over 900 multistate tax professionals.
Recognized direct and indirect tax technical knowledge; extensive experience defending tax positions and proactively resolving tax disputes in most state and local tax jurisdictions.

Common apportionment issues

- Does your company spend too much or too little time considering apportionment issues?
- Does your company have trouble identifying the necessary data for apportionment calculations?
- Is your company engaging in activities and transactions that may complicate apportionment calculations?
- Does your company have trouble determining what items may be included in certain states' apportionment formulas?
- Is your company concerned that it may be overpaying tax based upon its current apportionment computations?
- Has your company been contacted by state and local tax authorities regarding apportionment?

Apportionment trends to consider

- Market-based vs. cost-based sourcing
- Operational approach or transactional approach for defining the income producing activity (for cost-based sourcing)
- Bright-line nexus standards
- Characterization of revenue streams (e.g., TPP or intangible?)
- Unique aspects of property and payroll factors
- MTC three-factor litigation

Contacts

Valerie Dickerson
 Managing Partner
 Washington National Tax-Multistate
 +1 202 879 5600
 vdickerson@deloitte.com

Why Deloitte?

- Deloitte's State Tax Desk — designated, experienced professionals in each state who are available to address state-specific tax matters that may be routine or distinct in nature. Our State Tax Desk personnel:
 - Can assist in controversy matters or, if no imminent controversy, can analyze current apportionment practices
 - Provide controversy experience that includes tax audit, conciliation, and appeals
 - Can offer familiarity with audit and appeals processes and can leverage their knowledge and experience developed from working with state tax authorities

How we can help you

- Determine whether your company's existing apportionment practices reflect its business activity in the states where it does business
- Analyze e-commerce and traditional revenue streams for state apportionment purposes
- Explore property and payroll factor calculations to determine whether alternative calculations may be permitted
- Consider whether special industry rules apply or may apply to your company based on state-specific requirements
- Facilitate the transition to new apportionment methods being implemented in many states
- Assist with the negotiation of special apportionment agreements with state tax authorities

This service summary contains general information only and Deloitte is not, by means of this summary, rendering accounting, business, financial, investment, legal, tax, or other professional advice or services. This summary is not a substitute for such professional advice or services, nor should it be used as a basis for any decision or action that may affect your business. Before making any decision or taking any action that may affect your business, you should consult a qualified professional advisor. Deloitte shall not be responsible for any loss sustained by any person who relies on this summary.

As used in this document, "Deloitte" means Deloitte Tax LLP, a subsidiary of Deloitte LLP. Please see www.deloitte.com/us/about for a detailed description of the legal structure of Deloitte LLP and its subsidiaries. Certain services may not be available to attest clients under the rules and regulations of public accounting.

Copyright © 2015 Deloitte Development LLC. All rights reserved.
 Member of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited