

Design SHINE Associate Overview

Work you'll do

As a Design SHINE Associate, you will learn to produce creative print, digital, motion, and exhibition solutions in a fast-paced in-house agency environment. You'll serve as a strategic advisor and recommend techniques best suited to produce desired visual effects and results. Using your strong organizational and attention to detail skills, you'll ensure final deliverables have all the required components based on pre-established guidelines and coordinate the print and delivery of finished materials. Ultimately, your design will promote our brand through delivering high quality pieces on tight deadlines.

How you'll grow

At Deloitte, we help you shape the future direction of your career. We offer comprehensive development planning as well as training, mentoring, and coaching to help you grow. From hands-on experience to increases in responsibility to rewarding teamwork, Deloitte nurtures talent by providing supportive leadership.

The team

The Green Dot Agency is Deloitte's in-house agency. Sitting within the Client & Market Growth organization, we provide value to Deloitte by differentiating the Deloitte brand, driving Deloitte's business priorities forward, innovating new marketing solutions, and delivering distinct client experiences. We develop cutting-edge marketing plans, creative assets, and unique experiences that engage our clients; deliver on the strategy of our businesses in the marketplace; and capture the hearts, minds, and loyalty of our clients.
