Deloitte and IBM
Transforming how you get work done

Drawing on a relationship that has spanned 20 years, Deloitte and IBM bring together technology leadership, hands-on business experience, and industry knowledge.

The power of two
Together, we form an ecosystem focused on innovation and problem solving. We operate around the globe, helping you navigate today’s disruptive technology environment and drive business value.

Our mission? Creating future-focused, agile solutions that scale and advance the art of the possible. How? By combining Deloitte’s experience with IBM technology to put powerful insights in your grasp.

Where we focus
We pair technologies, integrate systems, mesh cultures, and marry strategies to deliver creative innovations.

- Analytics and information management: Get insights to promote organizational intelligence, lay the foundation for cognitive technologies, and meet your analytics needs.
- Blockchain: Leverage industry-specific use cases that encourage sharing, create transparency, deliver actionable insights, and drive new possibilities.
- Cloud: Gain access to the breadth of IBM Cloud offerings which enable off-premises, on-premises, migration, cloud security, and hybrid and multicloud solutions.
- Cognitive and AI: Leverage IBM Watson to manage data, predict scenarios, and prescribe actions.
- Cyber risk services: Develop and implement a broad cyber risk and digital identity program using IBM Security.
- Enterprise asset management and IoT: Extend the life of assets, improve uptime, get real-time visibility, plan and schedule maintenance, increase workforce safety, and more with IBM Maximo.
- Human capital: Apply our cognitive capabilities to build innovative strategies for recruiting, acquiring, engaging, and developing people.
- Integrated workplace management: Implement an end-to-end program using IBM TRIRIGA that supports lifecycle management of real estate assets.
- Legacy transformation: Migrate legacy code into modern languages that integrate with the latest technologies and support cloud or mobile deployment.
- Mainframe modernization: Help extend the useful life of your mainframe through optimized applications and solutions.
- Systems and infrastructure: Leverage IBM hardware, including mainframes (LinuxONE, z14, z15), storage, POWER AI systems, and application development platforms.
Bringing it to life

It may seem daunting to take the extensive software and hardware IBM offers and use them to make a difference in your organization. Don’t worry—we can help with that. Here are a few examples:

- We supported development of HealthInteractive™, which helps states meet federal Medicaid Enterprise System guidelines by increasing agility, security, and performance of Medicaid services. Deloitte is helping several states implement this industry-leading Medicaid solution, built on IBM Cloud.

- We launched ASK SCOUT, an artificial intelligence chatbot powered by Watson.

- We combined IBM’s Watson IoT platform with Maximo and data from The Weather Company to create an automated drone inspection solution.

- We explored how to achieve the most value from IBM Systems, including IBM LinuxOne, IBM Flash Storage and Software-Defined Storage, IBM Blockchain, and IBM zSystems mainframes.

- We can help CMOs and CISOs untangle the business of identity by combining engagement and IBM Security technologies with Deloitte’s advisory and implementation capabilities.

- We help organizations become data- and insight-driven by applying advanced analytical and machine learning techniques for more efficient decision-making processes.

- We developed a Maximo Voice Assistant to help engineers stay focused on their jobs through an audible and spoken interface.
