Accounting Roundup

by Magnus Orrell and Joseph Renouf, Deloitte & Touche LLP

Welcome to the January 2017 edition of Accounting Roundup. Highlights of this issue include the following:

- The FASB's issuance of (1) ASUs that clarify the definition of a business, amend the consolidation guidance for not-for-profit entities, simplify the goodwill impairment test, make technical corrections to the new revenue standard, and amend certain SEC guidance and (2) proposed ASUs that would simplify the balance sheet classification of debt and update the inventory disclosure requirements.
- The release of FAQs on the FASB's credit losses standard, ASU 2016-13, by several banking agencies.
- Public statements by the SEC's acting chairman, Michael Piwowar, regarding the Commission's 2014 guidance on its August 2012 final rule on conflict minerals.

Be sure to monitor upcoming issues of Accounting Roundup for new developments. We value your feedback and would appreciate any comments you may have on this publication. ## Business Combinations

FASB Clarifies the Definition of a Business

Affects: All entities.

Summary: On January 5, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-01 to clarify the definition of a business in ASC 805, which was among the primary issues raised in connection with the FAF's post-implementation review report on FASB Statement 141(R) (codified in ASC 805). The amendments in the ASU are intended to make application of the guidance more consistent and cost-efficient.

Editor's Note

The definition of a business in ASC 805 also affects other aspects of accounting, such as disposal transactions, determining reporting units when goodwill is tested for recoverability, and the business scope exception in ASC 810.

The ASU's Basis for Conclusions indicates that the amendments "narrow the definition of a business and provide a framework that gives entities a basis for making reasonable judgments about whether a transaction involves an asset or a business." Specifically, the ASU:

- Provides a "screen" for determining when a set is not a business. The screen requires a determination that when substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired (or disposed of) is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or group of similar identifiable assets, the set is not a business. The screen will reduce the number of transactions that an entity must further evaluate to determine whether they are business combinations or asset acquisitions.
- Specifies that if the screen's threshold is not met, a set cannot be considered a business unless it includes an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs. The ASU provides a framework to help entities evaluate whether both an input and a substantive process are present, and it removes the evaluation of whether a market participant could replace the missing elements.
- Narrows the definition of the term "output" to be consistent with the description of outputs in ASC 606.

The standard also provides examples that illustrate how an entity should apply the amendments in determining whether a set is a business.

Editor's Note

The definition of a business for SEC reporting purposes in Regulation S-X, Rule 11-01(d), and used by registrants to determine when financial statements and pro forma information are needed in SEC filings is different from the definition for U.S. GAAP accounting purposes. The SEC has not changed this definition as a result of the ASU's amendments.

The definition of a business in ASC 805 is currently identical to that in IFRS 3. Nevertheless, the interpretation and application of this term in jurisdictions that apply U.S. GAAP do not appear consistent with those in jurisdictions that apply IFRSs (i.e., the definition of a business in IFRS jurisdictions is not applied as broadly). Although the ASU adds implementation guidance to U.S. GAAP that is not found in IFRSs, the FASB intends to more closely align practice under U.S. GAAP with that under IFRSs by narrowing the application of the U.S. GAAP definition. Further, the IASB has added to its agenda a project on the definition of a business and issued an ED that proposes amendments similar to those in the ASU.

Next Steps: The ASU is effective for public business entities for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods therein. For all other entities, the ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The ASU must be applied prospectively on or after the effective date, and no disclosures for a change in accounting principle are required at transition.

Early adoption is permitted for transactions (i.e., acquisitions or dispositions) that occurred before the issuance date or effective date of the standard if the transactions were not reported in financial statements that have been issued or made available for issuance.

Consolidation

FASB Amends Consolidation Guidance for Not-for-Profit Entities

Affects: Not-for-profit entities (NFPs).

Summary: On January 12, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-02, which amends the consolidation guidance for not-for-profit entities in ASC 958-810. The amendments:

- Incorporate into ASC 958-810 the superseded consolidation guidance in ASC 810-20.
- Address when an "NFP limited partner should consolidate a for-profit limited partnership."

Next Steps: The ASU is effective for NFPs for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017.

Other Resources: Deloitte's January 30, 2017, Heads Up.

Debt Classification

FASB Proposes Changes to Simplify the Balance Sheet Classification of Debt

Affects: Entities that present a classified balance sheet.

Summary: On January 10, 2017, the FASB issued a proposed ASU aimed at reducing the cost and complexity of determining whether debt should be classified as current or noncurrent in a classified balance sheet. The ASU is being issued in response to feedback from stakeholders that the existing guidance on the balance sheet classification of debt is unnecessarily complex. The FASB's proposed approach would replace the current, fact-specific guidance in ASC 470-10 with a uniform principle under which a debt arrangement would be classified as noncurrent if either (1) the “liability is contractually due to be settled more than one year (or operating cycle, if longer) after the balance sheet date” or (2) the “entity has a contractual right to defer settlement of the liability for at least one year (or operating cycle, if longer) after the balance sheet date.” In addition, the proposed ASU includes application guidance that would clarify how covenant violations, covenant waivers, post-balance-sheet refinancing transactions, and subjective acceleration clauses affect debt classification.

Next Steps: Comments on the proposed ASU are due by May 5, 2017.

Other Resources: Deloitte’s January 12, 2017, Heads Up. Also see the press release on the FASB’s Web site.

Goodwill

FASB Simplifies Goodwill Impairment Test

Affects: All entities.

Summary: On January 26, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-04, which removes the requirement to compare the implied fair value of goodwill with its carrying amount as part of step 2 of the goodwill impairment test. As a result, under the ASU, “an entity should perform its annual, or interim, goodwill impairment test by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount [and] should recognize an impairment charge for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit’s fair value; however, the loss recognized should not exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to that reporting unit.”

In addition, the ASU:

- Clarifies the requirements for excluding and allocating foreign currency translation adjustments to reporting units in connection with an entity’s testing of reporting units for goodwill impairment.
- Clarifies that “an entity should consider income tax effects from any tax deductible goodwill on the carrying amount of the reporting unit when measuring the goodwill impairment loss, if applicable.”
- Makes minor changes to the overview and background sections of certain ASC subtopics and topics as part of the Board’s initiative to unify and improve those sections throughout the Codification.

Editor’s Note

Removing step 2 from the goodwill impairment test under ASC 350 more closely aligns U.S. GAAP with IFRSs because there is only one step in the goodwill impairment test under IFRSs. However, the impairment test required under IAS 36 is performed at the cash-generating-unit or group-of cash-generating-units level rather than the reporting-unit level as required by U.S. GAAP. Further, IAS 36 requires an entity to compare the carrying amount of the cash-generating unit with its recoverable amount, whereas the ASU requires an entity to compare the carrying amount of a reporting unit with its fair value.

Next Steps: The ASU is effective prospectively for fiscal years beginning after the following dates:

- For public business entities that are SEC filers, December 15, 2019.
- For public business entities that are not SEC filers, December 15, 2020.
- For all other entities, including not-for-profit entities, December 15, 2021.

Early adoption is permitted for interim or annual goodwill impairment tests performed on testing dates after January 1, 2017.

Other Resources: Deloitte's February 1, 2017, Heads Up.

Inventory

FASB Proposes Updates to Inventory Disclosures

Affects: All entities.

Summary: On January 10, 2017, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would modify or eliminate certain disclosure requirements related to inventory and establish new requirements. The proposal is part of the FASB's disclosure framework project, which is intended to help reporting entities improve the effectiveness of financial statement disclosures by "clearly communicating the information that is most important to users of each entity's financial statements."

Editor's Note

Also as part of its disclosure framework project, the FASB proposed guidance in July 2016, January 2016, and December 2015 that would amend disclosure requirements related to income taxes, defined benefit pensions and other postretirement plans, and fair value measurement. See Deloitte's December 8, 2015; January 28, 2016; and July 29, 2016, Heads Up newsletters for more information.

Disclosures required by the ASU would include the following:

- Significant changes in inventory resulting from transactions or events other than the purchase, manufacture, or sale of inventory in the normal course of business.
- The major components of inventory (e.g., raw materials, work in process, finished goods, and supplies).
- Entities that apply the LIFO method would be required to disclose (1) the excess of replacement cost or current cost over the reported inventory amount and (2) the effect on net income of the liquidation of a portion of an entity's LIFO inventory.
- For each annual period presented, "qualitative and quantitative information about the critical assumptions" used in the portions of inventory measured under the retail inventory method calculation.
- Public business entities would be required to disclose, by reportable segment, (1) total inventory and (2) a disaggregation of inventory by major component (such as raw materials, work in process, finished goods, and supplies).

Next Steps: Comments on the proposed ASU are due by March 13, 2017.

Other Resources: Deloitte's January 12, 2017, Heads Up. Also see the press release on the FASB's Web site.

Revenue Recognition

FASB Makes Technical Corrections and Improvements to New Revenue Standard

Affects: All entities.

Summary: On December 21, 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-20, which makes certain technical corrections (i.e., minor changes and enhancements) to the Board's new revenue standard, ASU 2014-09. The amendments were issued in response to feedback received from several sources, including the TRG for revenue recognition. The amendments clarify, rather than change, the new revenue standard's core revenue recognition principles. The technical corrections affect the following aspects of the new revenue standard:

- Loan guarantee fees.
- Contract costs — impairment testing.
- Contract costs — interaction of impairment testing with guidance in other topics.
- Provisions for losses related to construction-type and production-type contracts.
- Scope of the new revenue standard.
- Disclosure of remaining performance obligations.
- Disclosure of prior-period performance obligations.
- A contract modification example.
- Contract assets versus receivables.
- Refund liabilities.
- Advertising costs.
- Fixed-odds wagering contracts in the casino industry.
- Cost capitalization for advisers to private and public funds.

Next Steps: The effective date and transition requirements in ASU 2016-20 are the same as those in the new revenue standard.

Editor's Note

In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-14, which deferred for one year the effective date of the new revenue standard for public and nonpublic entities reporting under U.S. GAAP. For public business entities, as well as certain nonprofit entities and employee benefit plans, the effective date is annual reporting periods, and interim periods therein, beginning after December 15, 2017. The effective date for all other entities is one year later (i.e., December 15, 2018). Early adoption is permitted only as of annual reporting periods, and interim periods therein, beginning after December 15, 2016.

SEC

FASB Amends Certain Topics on the Basis of SEC Staff Announcements

Affects: SEC registrants.

Summary: On January 23, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-03, which amends certain SEC guidance in the FASB Accounting Standards Codification in response to SEC staff announcements made at the September 22, 2016, and November 17, 2016, EITF meetings. The announcements addressed the following topics:

- The “additional qualitative disclosures” that a registrant is expected to provide when it “cannot reasonably estimate the impact” that ASUs 2014-09, 2016-02, and 2016-13 will have in applying the guidance in SAB Topic 11.M (announcement made at the September 22, 2016, EITF meeting).
- Guidance in ASC 323 related to the amendments made by ASU 2014-01 regarding use of the proportional amortization method in accounting for investments in qualified affordable housing projects (announcement made at the November 17, 2016, EITF meeting).

Other Resources: Deloitte’s September 2016 and November 2016 EITF Snapshot newsletters.

International

IASB Proposes Changes to IFRSs as Part of Annual Improvements Process

Affects: Entities reporting under IFRSs.

Summary: On January 12, 2017, the IASB published an ED that would make minor amendments to the following three IFRSs as part of its annual improvements process:

- IAS 12 — These amendments would “clarify that an entity should account for all income tax consequences of dividends in the same way, regardless of how the tax arises.”
- IAS 23 — This standard would be amended “to clarify that when a qualifying asset is ready for its intended use or sale, an entity treats any outstanding borrowing made specifically to obtain that qualifying asset as part of the funds that it has borrowed generally.”
- IAS 28 — These amendments would “clarify that an entity is required to apply IFRS 9 Financial Instruments, including its impairment requirements, to long-term interests in an associate or joint venture that, in substance, form part of the net investment in the associate or joint venture but to which the equity method is not applied.”

Next Steps: Comments on the ED are due by April 12, 2017.

Other Resources: For more information, see the press release on the IASB’s Web site.

Banking Agencies Release FAQs on FASB's Credit Losses Standard

Affects: All entities.

Summary: On December 19, 2016, the Federal Reserve, FDIC, NCUA, and OCC released a series of FAQs on the FASB's new credit losses standard, ASU 2016-13, which was released in June 2016. Topics addressed in the FAQs include:

- Key provisions of the ASU, including those related to scope, effective date and transition, and measurement approaches.
- Aspects of U.S. GAAP that the ASU will change, including those related to purchased credit-deteriorated financial assets, available-for-sale and held-to-maturity debt securities, troubled debt restructurings, and off-balance-sheet credit exposures.
- “[I]nitial supervisory views with respect to measurement methods, portfolio segmentation, use of vendors, scalability, data needs, and allowance processes.”
- “[C]ertain steps that financial institutions are encouraged to take to prepare for the transition to the new accounting standard.”

Other Resources: For more information, see the press release on the OCC's Web site.

Derivative Contracts

Variation Margin on Derivatives

Affects: Entities that have derivatives cleared through the Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME) or London Clearing House (LCH).

Summary: The CME and LCH have amended their respective rulebooks to legally characterize variation margin payments — for derivative contracts that are referred to as settled-to-market (STM) — as settlements of the derivative's mark-to-market exposure and not collateral. As a result, accounting questions have arisen regarding the determination of the appropriate unit of account, hedge accounting upon transition and going forward, and other issues.

In May 2016, the ISDA's accounting committee submitted a whitepaper on the accounting impact of the rulebook changes to the SEC's Office of the Chief Accountant. On January 4, 2017, the ISDA issued a confirmation letter indicating that the SEC staff does not object to the conclusions reached in the whitepaper.

Next Steps: Entities should consider the impact that the changes may have in anticipation of financial statement filings for reporting periods ending after January 3, 2017.

Other Resources: Deloitte's January 24, 2017, Financial Reporting Alert.

Revenue Recognition

AICPA Issues Revenue Working Drafts

Affects: All entities.

Summary: In January, 2017, three AICPA revenue recognition task forces released for public comment working drafts on accounting issues associated with the implementation of the new revenue standard for the following industries: aerospace and defense, telecommunications, and time shares. The aerospace and defense working draft provides guidance on contract modifications, the working draft for time-share entities discusses performance obligations, and the two working drafts for the telecommunications industry address (1) separate performance obligations and (2) stand-alone selling prices.

Next Steps: Comments on the working drafts are due by March 2, 2017.

Other Resources: For more information, see the aerospace and defense, telecommunications, and time-share revenue recognition task force pages on the AICPA's Web site.

XBRL

FASB Releases 2017 U.S. GAAP Financial Reporting Taxonomy

Affects: All entities.

Summary: On December 15, 2016, the FASB released the 2017 U.S. GAAP Financial Reporting Taxonomy. The taxonomy "is a list of computer-readable tags in [XBRL] format that allows companies to tag precisely the thousands of pieces of financial data that are included in typical long-form financial statements and related footnote disclosures." The 2017 version of the taxonomy "contains updates for accounting standards and other improvements to the official Taxonomy previously in use by SEC issuers."

Next Steps: The SEC needs to approve the taxonomy before it becomes official; the Commission is expected to do so in early 2017.

FASAB

FASAB Issues Statement on Insurance Programs

Affects: Entities reporting under federal financial accounting standards.

Summary: On January 18, 2017, the FASAB issued Statement 51, which “establishes accounting and financial reporting standards for insurance programs.” Specifically, the new Statement “provides standards to ensure that insurance programs are adequately defined and report consistent information about the liabilities for losses incurred and claimed as well as expected losses during remaining coverage.”

Next Steps: Statement 51 is effective for reporting periods beginning after September 30, 2018.

Other Resources: For more information, see the press release on the FASAB’s Web site.

FASAB Issues Exposure Draft on Budget and Accrual Reconciliation

Affects: Entities reporting under federal financial accounting standards.

Summary: On December 21, 2016, the FASAB issued an ED that would amend the requirements in FASAB Statement 7 on “a reconciliation between budgetary and financial accounting information.” Specifically, the proposal “would replace the current reconciliation with a new budget and accrual reconciliation . . . and explain the relationship between the entity’s net outlays on a budgetary basis and the net cost of operations during the reporting period.”

Next Steps: Comments on the ED are due by March 14, 2017.

Other Resources: For more information, see the press release on the FASAB’s Web site.

GASB

GASB Issues Guidance on Fiduciary Activities

Affects: Entities reporting under financial accounting and reporting standards for state and local governments.

Summary: On January 31, 2016, the GASB issued Statement 84, which “establishes criteria for identifying fiduciary activities of all state and local governments.” The primary purpose of the Statement is to “improve guidance regarding the identification of fiduciary activities for accounting and financial reporting purposes and how those activities should be reported.”

Next Steps: Statement 84 is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. Early application is encouraged.

GASB Requests Feedback on Financial Reporting Model

Affects: Entities reporting under financial accounting and reporting standards for state and local governments.

Summary: On January 4, 2017, the GASB issued an invitation to comment (ITC) that requests feedback on “the Board’s financial reporting model reexamination project.” Specifically, the ITC “addresses potential improvements to fundamental issues of the GASB’s financial reporting model reexamination project: (1) the measurement focus and basis of accounting for governmental funds and (2) the presentation of governmental fund financial statements.”

Next Steps: Comments are due by March 31, 2017.

SEC Acting Chairman Makes Statements Regarding Conflict Minerals Rule

Affects: SEC registrants.

Summary: On January 31, 2017, Michael Piwowar, who was recently appointed as acting chairman of the SEC, made public statements related to the Commission's 2014 guidance on its August 2012 final rule on conflict minerals.

The SEC partially stayed compliance with the conflict minerals rule after an April 2014 appellate court ruling found that the rule violated the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. Mr. Piwowar indicated that the “partial stay has done little to stem the tide of unintended consequences washing over the Democratic Republic of the Congo and surrounding areas.” He further noted:

[T]he temporary transition period provided for in the Rule has expired. And the reporting period beginning January 1, 2017, is the first reporting period for which no issuer falls within the terms of that transition period. In light of this, as well as the unexpected duration of the litigation, I am directing the staff to consider whether the 2014 guidance is still appropriate and whether any additional relief is appropriate in the interim.

Next Steps: Mr. Piwowar is requesting feedback “from interested persons on all aspects of the rule and guidance.” A comment letter page has been set up on the SEC's Web site.

Other Resources: Mr. Piwowar's statements on the conflict minerals rule and on the reconsideration of the rule's implementation are available on the SEC's Web site.

SEC Updates EDGAR Filer Manual

Affects: SEC registrants.

Summary: On January 27, 2017, the SEC issued a final rule adopting Release 17.0.2 of its EDGAR system filer manual. Specifically, Volumes I–III of the EDGAR manual are being updated “to support an upgrade to the passphrase authentication process; and update the recommended Internet browser language for all EDGAR websites.”

The EDGAR system was upgraded on January 30, 2017.

SEC Publishes Examination Priorities for 2017

Affects: SEC registrants.

Summary: On January 12, 2017, the SEC's Office of Compliance Inspections and Examinations has published its examination priorities for 2017. The priorities focus on electronic investment advice, money market funds, and financial exploitation of senior investors. In addition, the priorities “reflect a continuing focus on protecting retail investors, including individuals investing for their retirement, and assessing market-wide risks.” The document is not necessarily comprehensive and “may be adjusted in light of market conditions, industry developments, and ongoing risk assessment activities.”

Other Resources: For more information, see the press release on the SEC's Web site.

SEC Chairman Discusses Global Accounting

Affects: SEC registrants.

Summary: On January 5, 2017, former SEC Chairman Mary Jo White issued a public statement in which she urged the next SEC chairman to continue to pursue global accounting standards to protect investors and the strength of the U.S. market. While Ms. White acknowledged that the Commission has not taken “formal action” related to such standards since 2010, she described the past years as a success:

Although the FASB and IASB have completed their agreed-upon, priority convergence projects, this milestone must not mark the end of the intense collaboration that has occurred between the two Boards over the last few years. These efforts have greatly enhanced the quality of accounting standards in a number of important areas, including recently narrowing many differences in the accounting standards for revenue recognition, leases, credit losses on financial instruments, and recognition and measurement of financial assets and liabilities.

Ms. White also suggested that such progress needs to continue. She concluded:

The United States cannot afford to be myopic about this issue in light of the benefits of these efforts for all stakeholders. Strong support of both the FASB and the IASB by U.S. investors, companies, auditors, and others, including the Commission, is essential. Indeed, it should be self-evident that the pursuit of high-quality globally accepted accounting standards is part of the SEC’s continuing responsibility to encourage, facilitate and direct efforts to enhance the quality of all financial reporting that directly impacts the protection of investors and the strength of our markets.

Appendix A: Current Status of FASB Projects

This appendix summarizes the objectives,<sup>1</sup> current status, and next steps for the FASB's active standard-setting projects (excluding research initiatives).

Project	Description	Status and Next Steps
Recognition and Measurement Projects
Accounting for financial instruments: hedging	The purpose of this project is to “make targeted improvements to the hedge accounting model based on the feedback received from preparers, auditors, users and other stakeholders.”	On September 8, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would make targeted improvements to the accounting for hedging activities. The proposed amendments “would expand and refine hedge accounting for both nonfinancial and financial risk components and would align the recognition and presentation of the effects of the hedging instrument and the hedged item in the financial statements.” Comments on the proposal were due by November 22, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte’s September 14, 2016, Heads Up. On January 25, 2017, the FASB discussed the feedback received on the proposed ASU. Further, the Board affirmed a number of the proposed amendments, rejected others, and agreed on a plan for redeliberation. For more information, see Deloitte’s February 1, 2017, journal entry.
Accounting for goodwill impairment	The objective of this project was to “reduce the cost and complexity of the subsequent accounting for goodwill by simplifying the impairment test . . . by removing the requirement to perform a hypothetical purchase price allocation when the carrying value of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value (step 2 of the impairment model in current GAAP).”	On January 26, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-04 to simplify the subsequent measurement of goodwill by removing the requirement to compare the implied fair value of goodwill with its carrying amount. Under the ASU, “an entity should perform its annual, or interim, goodwill impairment test by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount.” The ASU also removes existing special requirements for reporting units with a zero or negative carrying amount. The ASU is effective prospectively. A public business entity (PBE) that is a U.S. SEC filer should adopt the ASU for annual or interim goodwill impairment tests in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. A PBE that is not an SEC filer should adopt the ASU for annual or interim goodwill impairment tests in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020. All other entities should adopt the amendments for annual or interim goodwill impairment tests in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021. Early adoption is permitted for interim or annual goodwill impairment tests performed on testing dates after January 1, 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s February 1, 2017, Heads Up .
Accounting for interest income associated with the purchase of callable debt securities	This project aims “to enhance the transparency and usefulness of the information provided in the notes to the financial statements about interest income on purchased debt securities and loans” and “will also consider targeted improvements regarding the accounting for the amortization of premiums for purchased callable debt securities.”	On September 22, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would shorten the amortization period for investments in callable debt securities purchased at a premium by requiring that the premium be amortized to the earliest call date. Comments on the proposal were due by November 28, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte’s September 23, 2016, Heads Up. On February 1, 2017, the Board discussed feedback received on the proposed ASU and directed the staff to draft a final ASU for vote by written ballot. The final ASU is expected to be issued in the second quarter of 2017.

Clarifying the definition of a business (phase 1)	The purpose of this project was to “clarify the definition of a business with the objective of adding guidance to assist entities with evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as acquisitions (or disposals) of assets or businesses.”	On January 5, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-01 to clarify the definition of a business in ASC 805. The ASU is effective for PBEs for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods therein. For all other entities, the ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The ASU must be applied prospectively on or after the effective date. Early adoption is permitted for transactions (i.e., acquisitions or dispositions) that occurred before the issuance date or effective date of the standard if the transactions were not reported in financial statements that have been issued or made available for issuance. For more information, see Deloitte’s January 13, 2017, Heads Up .
Clarifying the scope of ASC 610-20 and accounting for partial sales of nonfinancial assets (formerly clarifying the definition of a business phase 2)	The purpose of this project is to clarify the scope of ASC 610-20 and the accounting for partial sales of nonfinancial assets.	On June 6, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would amend the guidance on nonfinancial assets in ASC 610-20. The proposed amendments include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Clarifying the scope of ASC 610-20 to indicate that it applies to “the derecognition of all nonfinancial assets and in substance nonfinancial assets unless other specific guidance applies.”</li> <li>• Stipulating that “a distinct nonfinancial asset would be the unit of account for applying the nonfinancial asset derecognition guidance.”</li> <li>• Providing guidance on accounting for partial sales of nonfinancial assets.</li> </ul> Comments on the proposed ASU were due by August 5, 2016. On October 10, 2016, the FASB discussed comments received on the proposed ASU and made tentative decisions related to the scope, transition method, and effective date. For public entities, the amendments will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years. For all other entities, the amendments will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. On December 14, 2016, the FASB discussed comments received on an external review draft and asked the staff to draft a final ASU for a vote by written ballot. The FASB expects to issue a final ASU in the first quarter of 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s June 14, 2016, Heads Up and October 17, 2016, journal entry.
Clarifying when a not-for-profit entity that is a general partner should consolidate a for-profit limited partnership (or similar entity)	The purpose of this project was to clarify when a not-for-profit entity that is a general partner should consolidate a for-profit limited partnership (or similar entity).	On January 12, 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-02 , which amends the consolidation guidance in ASC 958-810 to clarify when a not-for-profit entity that is a general partner or a limited partner should consolidate a for-profit limited partnership or similar legal entity. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted. For more information, see Deloitte’s January 30, 2017, Heads Up .
Collaborative arrangements: targeted improvements	The purpose of this project is “to clarify when transactions between partners in a collaborative arrangement (that is within the scope of [ASC 808]) should be accounted for as revenue transactions in [ASC 606].”	The Board added this project to its technical agenda on November 16, 2016.

Conceptual framework: measurement	The objective of the conceptual framework project is “to develop an improved conceptual framework that provides a sound foundation for developing future accounting standards.”	Beginning in 2014, the Board has deliberated measurement concepts, such as methods of determining initial carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, and equity. In addition, the Board has discussed concepts related to measuring changes in carrying amounts. On November 30, 2016, the Board made tentative decisions related to initial measurement concepts and asked the staff to develop a revised project plan.
Consolidation reorganization and targeted improvements	The purpose of this project is to clarify and make targeted improvements to the consolidation guidance in ASC 810.	On November 2, 2016, the Board added this project to its technical agenda. Further, it tentatively decided to (1) “clarify the consolidation guidance in [ASC 810]” by dividing it into separate Codification subtopics for voting interest entities and variable interest entities (VIEs); (2) develop a new Codification topic, ASC 812, that would include those reorganized subtopics and would completely supersede ASC 810; (3) rescind the subsections on consolidation of entities controlled by contract in ASC 810-10-15 and in ASC 810-30 on research and development arrangements; (4) “further clarify that power over a VIE is obtained through a variable interest”; and (5) “provide further clarification of the application of the concept of ‘expected,’ which is used throughout the VIE consolidation guidance.” The Board directed the staff to prepare a staff draft of the proposed amendments, which would also include a “discussion of a potential scope exception for private companies under common control and potential proposed amendments to all other entities under common control.” For more information, see Deloitte’s November 8, 2016, journal entry .
Determining the customer of the operation services in a service concession arrangement (EITF Issue 16-C)	The purpose of this project is to resolve diversity in practice related to the accounting for service concession arrangements.	On November 4, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU in response to the consensus-for-exposure reached by the EITF at its September 22, 2016, meeting. A service concession arrangement is an arrangement between a grantor (a government or public-sector entity) and an operating entity (a private-sector entity) under which the operating entity will operate the grantor’s infrastructure (e.g., airports, roads, bridges, and hospitals). Under the proposed ASU, the grantor (rather than any third-party user) is considered the customer of the operation services when the revenue recognition guidance in ASC 606 is applied to a service concession arrangement within the scope of ASC 853. Accordingly, payments made by the operating entity to the grantor are treated as a reduction of revenue rather than as an operating expense.  Comments on the proposed ASU were due by January 6, 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s September 2016 EITF Snapshot .

Insurance: targeted improvements to the accounting for long-duration contracts	The purpose of this project is to “develop targeted improvements to insurance accounting. Those improvements may address recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure requirements for long-duration insurance contracts.”	On September 29, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would make targeted improvements to the recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure requirements for long-duration contracts issued by insurance entities. The proposed approach would affect the assumptions used to measure the liability for future policy benefits, the measurement of market risk benefits, and the amortization of deferred acquisition costs. Comments on the proposal were due by December 15, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte’s October 2016 Insurance Spotlight .
Liabilities and equity: targeted improvements	The purpose of this project is to “simplify the accounting guidance related to financial instruments with characteristics of liabilities and equity.”	On December 7, 2016, the Board issued a proposed ASU that would replace (1) the existing guidance on “down-round” features in ASC 815-40 with a new accounting model and (2) the indefinite deferrals in ASC 480-10 with scope exceptions that have the same applicability. Comments on the proposal are due by February 6, 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s December 8, 2016, Heads Up .
Nonemployee share-based payment accounting improvements	The purpose of this project is “to reduce cost and complexity and improve the accounting for nonemployee share-based payment awards issued by public and private companies.”	At its May 4, 2016, meeting, the Board tentatively decided to expand the scope of ASC 718 to include all share-based payment arrangements related to acquiring goods and services from nonemployees. At its June 15, 2016, meeting, the Board made tentative decisions about transition methods for applying the proposed guidance and disclosures. On November 30, 2016, the Board tentatively decided to require the use of the contractual term (rather than the expected term) as an input for measuring nonemployee share-based payment transactions and directed the staff to draft a proposed ASU for a vote by written ballot. The FASB expects to issue the proposed ASU in the first quarter of 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s December 16, 2015 ; May 4, 2016 ; and June 15, 2016 , journal entries.
Revenue recognition: grants and contracts by not-for-profit entities	The purpose of this project is to “improve and clarify existing guidance on revenue recognition of grants and contracts by not-for-profit entities.”	At its April 20, 2016, meeting, the FASB decided to add this project to its technical agenda. Stakeholders have raised two main issues: (1) characterizing grants and contracts with governmental agencies and others as (a) reciprocal transactions (exchanges) or (b) nonreciprocal transactions (contributions) and (2) differentiating between conditions and restrictions for nonreciprocal transactions. The Board deliberated these issues on June 15, 2016; August 31, 2016; and December 14, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte’s June 16, 2016, journal entry .
Share-based payments: scope of modification accounting in ASC 718	This project is intended to reduce the cost and complexity of applying modification accounting in ASC 718.	On November 17, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would clarify which changes to the terms or conditions of a share-based payment award should require an entity to apply modification accounting under ASC 718. Modification accounting would not apply if a change to an award does not affect the total current fair value (or other applicable measurement), vesting requirements, or the classification of the award. Comments on the proposed ASU were due by January 6, 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s November 18, 2016, Heads Up .
Technical corrections and improvements	The purpose of this project is to “provide regular updates and improvements to the [Codification] based on feedback received from constituents.”	On December 14, 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-19 , which contains technical corrections and improvements to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification . Most of the amendments are effective immediately.

Technical corrections and improvements: revenue from contracts with customers	The purpose of the technical corrections and improvements project is to “provide regular updates and improvements to the [Codification] based on feedback received from constituents.”	On December 21, 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-20 , which amends certain aspects of the Board’s new revenue standard, ASU 2014-09, to clarify, rather than change, the new revenue standard’s core revenue recognition principles. The effective date and transition requirements in ASU 2016-20 are the same as those in the new revenue standard. For more information, see Deloitte’s January 5, 2017, journal entry .

Presentation and Disclosure Projects

Conceptual framework: presentation	The objective of the conceptual framework project is to develop an improved conceptual framework that provides a sound foundation for developing future accounting standards.	On August 11, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed concepts statement that would add a new chapter on presentation of financial statement information to the FASB’s conceptual framework. Comments were due by November 9, 2016.
------------------------------------	---	--

Disclosure framework	The disclosure framework project consists of two phases: (1) the FASB’s decision process and (2) the entity’s decision process. The overall objective of the project is to “improve the effectiveness of disclosures in notes to financial statements by clearly communicating the information that is most important to users of each entity’s financial statements. (Although reducing the volume of the notes to financial statements is not the primary focus, the Board hopes that a sharper focus on important information will result in reduced volume in most cases.)”	FASB’s Decision Process On March 4, 2014, the FASB issued an ED of a proposed concepts statement that would add a new chapter to the Board’s conceptual framework for financial reporting that contains a decision process for the Board and its staff to use in determining what disclosures should be required in notes to financial statements. Comments on the ED were due by July 14, 2014. For more information, see Deloitte’s March 6, 2014, Heads Up.
----------------------	---	---

On September 24, 2015, the FASB issued an ED of proposed amendments to chapter 3 of Concepts Statement 8 that would add a statement that materiality is a legal concept and include a brief summary of the U.S. Supreme Court’s definition of materiality. Comments on the ED were due by December 8, 2015.

Entity’s Decision Process

On September 24, 2015, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would amend the Codification to indicate that the omission of disclosures about immaterial information is not an accounting error. The proposal notes that materiality is a legal concept that should be applied to assess quantitative and qualitative disclosures individually and in the aggregate in the context of the financial statements taken as a whole. Comments on the proposal were due by December 8, 2015. For more information, see Deloitte’s September 28, 2015, Heads Up.

The Board began its discussion of comments received on December 14, 2016.

Disclosure framework: disclosure review — defined benefit plans	The purpose of this project is to improve the effectiveness of disclosure requirements that apply to defined benefit plans.	On January 26, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would modify the disclosure requirements for employers that sponsor defined benefit pension or other postretirement plans. Comments on the proposal were due by April 25, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte’s January 28, 2016, Heads Up .

At its July 13, 2016, meeting, the FASB discussed feedback on its proposed ASU and directed its staff to conduct additional research.

Disclosure framework: disclosure review — fair value measurement	The purpose of this project is to improve the effectiveness of fair value measurement disclosures.	On December 3, 2015, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would modify the disclosure requirements related to fair value measurement. Comments on the proposal were due by February 29, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte's December 8, 2015, Heads Up. At its June 1, 2016, meeting, the FASB discussed comments received on its proposed ASU and directed its staff to reach out to investors and other financial statement users regarding the proposal.
Disclosure framework: disclosure review — income taxes	The purpose of this project is to improve the effectiveness of income tax disclosures.	On June 26, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would modify existing and add new income tax disclosure requirements. The proposed requirements include describing an enacted change in tax law; disaggregating certain income tax information between foreign and domestic; explaining the circumstances that caused a change in assertion about the indefinite reinvestment of undistributed foreign earnings; and disclosing the aggregate of cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities held by foreign subsidiaries. Comments on the proposed ASU were due by September 30, 2016. For more information, see Deloitte's July 29, 2016, Heads Up. On January 25, 2017, the Board discussed the feedback received on the proposed ASU. No technical decisions were made.
Disclosure framework: disclosures — interim reporting	The purpose of this project is to improve the effectiveness of interim disclosures.	At its May 28, 2014, meeting, the FASB decided to amend ASC 270 "to reflect that disclosures about matters required to be set forth in annual financial statements should be provided on an updated basis in the interim report if there is a substantial likelihood that the updated information would be viewed by a reasonable investor as significantly altering the 'total mix' of information available to the investor."
Disclosure framework: disclosure review — inventory	The purpose of this project is to improve the effectiveness of inventory disclosures.	On January 10, 2017, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would modify or eliminate certain disclosure requirements related to inventory and establish new requirements. Comments on the proposed ASU are due by March 13, 2017. For more information, see Deloitte's January 12, 2017, Heads Up.
Disclosures by business entities about government assistance	The purpose of this project is to "develop disclosure requirements about government assistance that improves the content, quality and comparability of financial information and financial statements and that is responsive to the emerging issues in the changing financial and economic environment in which reporting entities operate."	On November 12, 2015, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would increase financial reporting transparency by requiring specific disclosures about government assistance received by businesses. The objective of the proposed disclosure requirements is to enable financial statement users to better assess (1) the nature of the government assistance, (2) the accounting policies for the government assistance, (3) the impact of the government assistance on the financial statements, and (4) the significant terms and conditions of the government assistance arrangements. Comments on the proposed ASU were due by February 10, 2016. At its June 8, 2016, meeting, the FASB made tentative decisions about the project's scope, whether to require disclosures about government assistance received but not recognized directly in the financial statements, and omission of information when restrictions preclude an entity from disclosing the information required. For more information, see Deloitte's November 20, 2015, Heads Up and June 14, 2016, journal entry.

Employee benefit plan master trust reporting (EITF Issue 16-B)	The purpose of this project is to improve the presentation and disclosure guidance for employee benefit plans that have investments held in master trusts.	On July 28, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU in response to the EITF consensus-for-exposure on employee benefit plans' presentation and disclosures related to interests in a master trust. Comments on the proposed ASU were due by September 26, 2016. On November 17, 2016, the EITF discussed the comments received and reached a final consensus, which will be effective for employee benefit plans for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018; early adoption will be permitted. The FASB ratified the consensus at its November 30, 2016, meeting and expects to issue the final ASU in the first quarter of 2017. For more information, see Deloitte's June 2016 EITF Snapshot.
Financial statements of not-for-profit entities (phase 2)	The purpose of this project is to "reexamine existing standards for financial statement presentation by not-for-profit entities."	The FASB issued a proposed ASU on April 22, 2015, on which comments were due by August 20, 2015. On October 28, 2015, the FASB discussed feedback received on the proposal and decided to split the project into two phases. The Board completed the first phase on August 18, 2016, when it issued ASU 2016-14, which simplifies and improves how a not-for-profit organization classifies its net assets, as well as the information it presents in financial statements and notes about its liquidity, financial performance, and cash flows. ASU 2016-14 indicates that the second phase of the project is "expected to address more protracted issues surrounding whether and how to define the term operations and align measures of operations (or financial performance) as presented in a statement of activities with measures of operations in a statement of cash flows."
Improving the presentation of net periodic pension cost and net periodic postretirement benefit cost	The purpose of this project is to "simplify and improve the reporting of net periodic pension cost and net periodic postretirement benefit cost ('net benefit cost')."	On January 26, 2016, the FASB issued a proposed ASU that would require an entity to (1) disaggregate the current service cost component from the other components of net benefit cost and present it with other current compensation costs for the related employees in the income statement and (2) present the remaining components of net benefit cost elsewhere in the income statement and outside of income from operations, if such a subtotal is presented. In addition, the proposed ASU would limit the portion of net benefit cost eligible for capitalization (e.g., as part of inventory or property, plant, and equipment) to the service cost component. Comments on the proposed ASU were due by April 25, 2016. On November 2, 2016, the Board decided to provide a practical expedient related to situations in which an entity presents information about prior comparative periods and directed the staff to draft a final ASU for a vote by written ballot. The final ASU will be effective for public business entities for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those annual periods. For other entities, the final ASU will be effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The FASB expects to issue a final ASU in the first quarter of 2017. For more information, see Deloitte's January 28, 2016, Heads Up and November 3, 2016, journal entry.

Simplifying the balance sheet classification of debt

The purpose of this project is to “reduce cost and complexity by replacing the fact-pattern specific guidance in GAAP with a principle to classify debt as current or noncurrent based on the contractual terms of a debt arrangement and an entity’s current compliance with debt covenants.”

On January 10, 2017, the FASB issued a proposed ASU on determining whether debt should be classified as current or noncurrent in a classified balance sheet. In place of the current, fact-specific guidance in ASC 470-10, the proposed ASU would introduce a classification principle under which a debt arrangement would be classified as noncurrent if either (1) the “liability is contractually due to be settled more than one year (or operating cycle, if longer) after the balance sheet date” or (2) the “entity has a contractual right to defer settlement of the liability for at least one year (or operating cycle, if longer) after the balance sheet date.” Under an exception to the classification principle, an entity would not classify debt as current solely because of the occurrence of a debt covenant violation that gives the lender the right to demand repayment of the debt, as long as the lender waives its right before the financial statements are issued (or are available to be issued). Comments on the proposal are due by May 5, 2017. For more information, see Deloitte’s January 12, 2017, Heads Up.

DART and US GAAP Plus

Put a wealth of information at your fingertips. The Deloitte Accounting Research Tool (DART) is a comprehensive online library of accounting and financial disclosure literature. It contains material from the FASB, EITF, AICPA, PCAOB, IASB, and SEC, in addition to Deloitte's own accounting manuals and other interpretive guidance and publications.

Updated every business day, DART has an intuitive design and navigation system that, together with its powerful search and personalization features, enable users to quickly locate information anytime, from any device and any browser. While much of the content on DART is available at no cost, subscribers have access to premium content, such as Deloitte's FASB Accounting Standards Codification Manual, and can also elect to receive Technically Speaking, a weekly publication that highlights recent additions to DART. For more information, or to sign up for a free 30-day trial of premium DART content, visit dart.deloitte.com.

In addition, be sure to visit US GAAP Plus, our free Web site that features accounting news, information, and publications with a U.S. GAAP focus. It contains articles on FASB activities and those of other U.S. and international standard setters and regulators, such as the PCAOB, AICPA, SEC, IASB, and IFRS Interpretations Committee. Check it out today!

Conclusions of the FASB, GASB, IASB, and IFRS Interpretations Committee are subject to change at future meetings and generally do not affect current accounting requirements until an official position (e.g., Accounting Standards Update or IFRS) is issued. Official positions are determined only after extensive deliberation and due process, including a formal vote.

Further information about the standard setters can be found on their respective Web sites as follows: www.fasb.org (FASB); www.fasb.org/eitf/agenda.shtml (EITF); www.aicpa.org (AICPA); www.sec.gov (SEC); <https://pcaobus.org/Pages/default.aspx> (PCAOB); www.fasab.gov (FASAB); www.gasb.org (GASB); and www.ifrs.org — or on www.iasplus.com/en (IASB and IFRS Interpretations Committee).
