DO WHAT HELPS PEOPLE, TEAMS, AND ORGANIZATIONS FLOURISH.

If you're driven to improve the workplace and the world, we can give you more opportunities to do what matters. Finding new ways to align people and business strategies. Applying an analytic focus to solving complicated problems. And following through from strategy to execution to confidently deliver solutions with impact.

Deloitte Consulting is organized into three service areas: Strategy and Operations, Technology and Human Capital. This fact sheet provides information related to the Human Capital practice. If you are interested in learning more about Strategy and Operations or Technology, please contact your campus recruiter.

What kind of opportunities will I have?

At Deloitte, we advise thousands of companies around the world on critical issues from talent to compensation. Our broad range of service lines lets you bring your unique talents to the table and explore ways to gain the knowledge that can take your career further. Our service lines include:

Actuarial, Rewards & Analytics.

Specialize in providing advanced analytics, quantification of risk, and advisory services across industries. Work with many of the world's leading financial services providers in life, property & casualty insurance and retirement services, as well as healthcare plans and providers.

HR Transformation (HRT). Work with companies to clearly define, structure, and implement HR solutions, helping to create a uniform, high-quality, cost-effective HR service model, powered by technology capabilities to optimize business alignment and maximize performance.

Organization Transformation (OT). Partner with business leaders to align people strategies with business strategies and address the human factors affecting an organization's ability to reach its transformation objectives.

Where will you go from here?

That's up to you. But when you work at the place where leaders thrive, you'll get the training, the skills, and the rich network of Deloitte colleagues that will follow you for your entire career—wherever you decide to pursue it. Not to mention, the confidence that opens the door to a world of possibilities.
