DO WHAT MATTERS FOR OUR CLIENTS, FOR US AND FOR YOU

As a Project Controller Analyst, you will work directly with the consulting engagement team to provide financial and logistical analysis and advice. You will work alongside our Consultants from beginning to end of a client project, as they provide services designed to help companies in their efforts to improve. You will be responsible for providing key financial services to all members of the project team. These services include applying project management principles, managing project logistics, financial budgeting, forecasting, and cash flow analysis. In a sense, you are the project's Chief Financial Officer. Make an impact on projects by thriving as a leader. Through it all, you'll surpass your own expectations and confidently build the knowledge and the network that can lead to one-of-a-kind success.
