

2015 Deloitte FanTAXtic Competition

OFFICIAL RULES

NO FEE OR PURCHASE NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN.

The 2015 Deloitte FanTAXtic Competition (the “Competition”) is sponsored by Deloitte Tax LLP (“Deloitte Tax”) and the Deloitte Foundation (collectively, the “Sponsor”). Competition participants agree to be bound by these Official Rules and the decisions of the Sponsor, which are binding and final on matters relating to this Competition. The Competition is subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws. Void where prohibited.

COMPETITION REGISTRATION: Registration for the Competition begins Thursday, August 28, 2015 at 9 a.m. Eastern Time (“ET”) and ends Wednesday, September 30, 2015 at 11:59 p.m. ET. All participants must register within this time frame to be eligible for an award.

COMPETITION DATES: Competition begins October 1, 2015 at 9 a.m. ET and ends on January 17, 2016 at 9:30 p.m. Central Time.

WHO MAY ENTER:

The Competition is open only to full-time students (as of October 1, 2015) from invited universities:

- who are legal residents of the fifty (50) United States and the District of Columbia
- who are of legal age of majority in the jurisdiction in which they reside (and at least 18 years old) who are enrolled in the university’s bachelor’s or master’s degree programs (graduate students must have a declared major in accounting or tax).
- who are enrolled in or have received instruction or credit hour(s) in at least one accounting course under the semester system.
- are classified as either sophomores, juniors, seniors or graduate students based upon their university’s criteria (semester hours or credit hours) for classification.

Partners, principals, employees or interns of Deloitte LLP and its subsidiaries are not eligible to participate in the Competition. Students who have accepted employment with the Sponsor with a start date after January 17, 2016 are eligible. Participants in prior FanTAXtic or Tax Case Study Competitions will not be eligible to compete in the Competition. Students with 12 months or more of full-time or full time equivalent (“FTE”) relevant work experience (excluding internships) will NOT be eligible to compete in the Competition. Relevant work experience is determined by the Sponsor in its sole discretion.

COMPETITION OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the Competition is to provide participating students with the opportunity to engage in a case study simulation and give a presentation of solutions to a judging panel consisting of Deloitte Tax professionals (the “judging panel”) that address the business and tax implications of their assigned case. Regional presentations will take place on November 7, 2015, at local Deloitte office locations (the “Regional Competition”).

The winning teams from up to nine (9) regions will then compete at the national event at Deloitte University in Westlake, Texas on January 17, 2016 (the “National Competition”).

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

Participants must form a team as provided below in the section entitled "Teams." Each team member and his/her faculty advisor must acknowledge and agree to these Official Rules. All team members will sign a written acknowledgement with the Deloitte Site Coordinator on November 7, 2015 at each team's registered Regional Competition location.

Once participants have formed a team in accordance with the "Teams" section below, each team's faculty advisor must complete the registration form found online at www.deloitte.com/us/fantaxticcsc (the "Website") by 11:59pm ET on September 30, 2015 and acknowledge these Official Rules on behalf of themselves and their University. The students on the team(s) must be approved by the National FanTAXtic Planning team. The faculty advisor and team members will be notified by the National FanTAXtic Planning Team via email on or about October 1, 2015 to confirm the team is eligible to compete ("Registered Teams").

TEAMS:

Participating universities will be allowed to register up to two (2) teams. Registration for the Regional Competition being held closest to your university will be accepted on a "first-come, first served basis". Once the maximum number of teams that can be accommodated at a Regional Competition office location has been reached, no more applications will be accepted for that location. However, Registered Teams may be offered an alternate location to compete in the Regional Competitions. All expenses, including travel and accommodations, associated with attending an alternate Regional Competition are at the sole expense of the team members and their faculty advisor.

TEAM COMPOSITION

- Each team must be comprised of a total of five (5) students.
- Each team must consist of at least two (2) sophomores, two (2) junior(s)/senior(s), and no more than one (1) graduate student. Eligible team members must either be enrolled in or have completed an accounting class(es) as of October 1, 2015. Graduate students must currently be enrolled in a master's degree program in accounting or tax. If your university doesn't have a graduate program, the team may substitute with an undergraduate student (sophomore, junior, or senior only).

COMPETITION FORMAT:

- All Registered Teams will receive, via email, an issues-based case approximately three (3) weeks prior to the Regional Competition.
- All teams will be required to bring to the Regional Competition location and, if applicable, the National Competition a draft PowerPoint presentation (i.e. proposed solution) on a flash drive, which they will present to a judging panel. The judging panel will role play as the majority shareholders of a client.
- Teams should bring their personal laptops/computers and calculators with them to the Competition. Laptops will NOT be provided by the Sponsor. Cell phones and PDAs are not allowed in the breakout rooms and presentations rooms at the Competition. Sponsor will provide paper, pens, pencils, Internet access, and a printer at the Competition locations.
- Upon the team's arrival at the Regional and National Competitions but prior to their actual presentation to the judging panels, they will be given additional case facts or information. The teams will have an opportunity to ask questions about such additional case facts and information of the Deloitte Tax professional(s) presenting the information and will also be assigned a breakout room prior to their presentation time to process the information and incorporate it into their presentation. Each team will have an equal period of time to prepare for their presentations following the receipt of this additional information. The time given to the teams for additional preparation will be determined by the Sponsor on the day of the regional and national competitions, in its sole discretion. Faculty advisors will NOT be permitted in the breakout rooms on the day of the presentations.

- Each team will present to a judging panel for approximately 14 minutes. After their presentation, they will engage in Q & A with the judging panel for approximately 5-7 minutes. After all the teams have presented and completed their Q & A session before a judging panel a Deloitte Tax professional will meet with each team to debrief and review their solutions. This debrief will occur at both the national and regional level of competition.

EXTERNAL ASSISTANCE:

- Each Registered Team will be assigned a Deloitte Tax professional (“Deloitte Advisor”) prior to the Regional Competition. The role of the Deloitte Advisor is to answer basic questions as the teams prepare for the Competition however, they will not offer specific guidance related to the solution.
- Each Registered Team is permitted to use one faculty advisor from their university for guidance. Faculty advisors’ involvement should be limited to: assisting with general strategies for the Competition, presentation skills feedback, formulating a plan to analyze data, suggestions around organization, presentation format, style of presentation, etc. Teams and faculty advisors are expected to follow an honor code. The faculty advisor is permitted to attend the Competition. However, faculty advisors are not permitted in break-out rooms provided on the day of the presentations.
- Sponsor will provide registered teams with access to CCH's online resources of the Internal Revenue Code and Treasury Regulations. Students are welcome to use other online resources that they are currently using on campus (RIA Checkpoint, etc.). A special webcast on Tax Research is offered on the Website.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

Each team’s presentation at the Regional Competition and National Competition will be evaluated by a judging panel in their sole discretion as follows:

- Recommendations and Technical Content (50 points)
- Presentation Style and Delivery (15 points)
- Structure of Deliverable (10 points)
- Q&A (25 points)

REGIONAL COMPETITION:

All Registered Teams will present at the Regional Competition to a judging panel on November 7, 2015. The team from each Regional Competition location with the highest score (“first place regional team”) and the team with the second highest score (“second place regional team”), as determined by the Sponsor in its sole discretion, will be notified via email the week of November 9, 2015. In the event of a tie, the team with the highest score in the Q&A response portion will be deemed the winner. Only team members that attend the Regional Competition in person and participate in the presentation will be eligible for an award. At Sponsor’s sole discretion, a team may still win an award if one of its members is unable to attend the presentation.

NATIONAL COMPETITION:

Up to nine (9) first place regional teams may advance to the National Competition. The first place regional teams will be randomly split into three (3) brackets to compete. The national judging panel which consists of six (6) judges will also be split into three (3) panels to view the presentations. The teams in each bracket will give a live presentation, as described in Competition Format section above, to its judging panel. All presentations will be videotape recorded. The judging panels will use the Judging Criteria listed above to choose the top two (2) teams for their bracket. Immediately following, the entire national judging panel of six (6) judges will review the videotape recorded presentations of the top two (2) teams from each bracket and based on the same Judging Criteria, will choose a first, second and third place team for the National Competition awards. In the event of a tie, the team with the highest score in the Q&A response portion will be deemed the winner.

WINNER NOTIFICATION:

REGIONAL COMPETITION:

First place regional team winners selected to advance to the National Competition and regional second place team winners will each be notified via email the week of November 9, 2015. The decisions of the Sponsor are final and binding on all matters.
