

DRAFT OFFICIAL RULES

Deloitte Games 2018

(NO PURCHASE NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN.)

The WINTER 2018 DELOITTE GAMES Competition (the "Competition") is funded by Deloitte LLP ("Sponsor"). Competition participants agree to be bound by these Official Rules and the decisions of the Sponsor and the judges, which are binding and final on matters relating to this Competition. The Competition is subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws. Void where prohibited by law.

COMPETITION OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Competition is for eligible participants (as defined below) to create a virtual "Squad" made up of 15 countries chosen to win in each of the 15 sports (See Appendix for definition of Squad) for the 2018 Olympics in PyeongChang, South Korea (the "Olympics"). Participants will then be entered into the overall league against thousands of other players (i.e., other participants). Points will be awarded when selected countries earn a gold, silver, or bronze medal. The participant who's Squad has the most points accumulated at the end of the Competition wins* (see who may enter to win below). The points assigned by the Sponsor for the countries in each of the 15 sports is based on how they are expected to perform in the upcoming Olympics. The more medals that a country is expected to win, the higher their value in the game will be. The Sponsor has based their research on historical statistics and latest results in competitions in that particular sport.

REGISTRATION PERIOD: Registration will open on January 8, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. Eastern Time ("ET") and will close at 7:00 p.m. ET on February 7, 2018 ("Registration Period"). See How To Register section below for more information.

COMPETITION PERIOD: The Competition begins 12:01 a.m. ET on February 10, 2018 and ends February 25, 2018 11:59 p.m. ET (the "Competition Period").

After participants have filled out the form, and selected their Squad (see How To Choose your Squad section below) they will then be taken to a screen that contains these Official Rules and must click on "I accept" to acknowledge and agree to these Official Rules before continuing to the next page. Entrants pick their Squads by selecting an anticipated winning country in each of the fifteen (15) different winter sports events (see below for more details). All Squad selections must be received by 7:00 p.m. ET on February 7, 2018. Entrants may make changes to their Squad selections up to 7:00 p.m. ET on February 9th. Limit one (1) entry per person and per user name and password. Multiple entries received from any person after the first entry received from that person will be void. Entries generated by script, macro or other automated or mechanical means shall be void. On submission the entries become the property of Sponsor and will not be acknowledged or returned. The list above shows all sports where medals are available. If participants only want to populate the sports they have a passion for – an “auto-complete” button can automatically fill in the remaining sports to complete their Squad. Participants can only compete if they have a complete Squad chosen by the end of the Registration Period.

Each country will be assigned a value for each sport based on how they are likely to perform in the Olympics. The total value of a participant’s Squad must not exceed 100 credits. The credits for the countries in each sport is based on how they are expected to perform in the upcoming Olympics. The more medals that a country is expected to win, the higher their value in the game will be. The research is based on historical statistics and latest results in competitions in that sport.

Participants can enter the Website at any point during the Competition Period to check on their Squad but no changes can be made during this period. Participants will be competing with the overall league against other participants.

HOW TO CHOOSE YOUR SQUAD

Upon registration, entrants (as defined above) will receive 100 credits to use to select their Squad/chosen winning countries in the fifteen (15) sports listed in the How to Enter section above. Each country in each sport is assigned a point value by the Sponsor. An automated option also exists for entrants who do not wish to select their own Squads, whereby the system will randomly select Squads for the entrant. All entries, whether self-chosen or randomly chosen by the system, will be afforded the same chances of winning.

Scoring is based on medals awarded in each event of the Olympics and will only begin after the Registration Period is closed. No scoring will occur during the Registration Period. As each of the sports has a varying number of events, the points awarded for medals will vary by sport.

*During the 2018 Games, winning Russian athletes competing under any banner will not contribute to overall individual point totals.

DAILY PLAY

As the Olympics unfold, the participants will be asked to predict the winner of a random medal event each day. For example on Day 1 of the Olympics, the Men’s Sprint will be contested in Biathlon. Participants will be asked to select the country they believe will win Gold for that event. For the daily picks there are no budget constraints and the participant can select whoever they believe will win that particular event, which can be a different team than that selected for their overall Squad.

Daily event predictions can be made for the whole Olympics up front. Participants will be able to go back and make changes all the way up until a specific deadline before the event itself, allowing them to make an informed decision based on results in the heats. Participants will be given a choice after they register to make these daily play choices. Winners of daily play will receive 50 bonus points towards their total points for the Competition if the team they select wins Gold.
