LOCALiQ

Dear honorees and guests,

Welcome to the 2019 Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100 Awards luncheon!

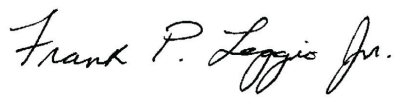

We are delighted you are joining us at our 36th annual event to recognize an elite group of Cincinnati privately held companies. Today, we celebrate your success and the success of all companies that have been named to the 2019 Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100.

On behalf of Deloitte, Great American Insurance Group, and LOCALiQ Cincinnati, we are proud to showcase the accomplishments of these organizations and celebrate the role that family-owned, employee-owned, and privately held companies play in our community.

According to our annual survey of executives from the 100 companies, these privately held businesses generated $42.24 billion in revenue last year. Over the past year, the area's largest private companies have grown an average of 11 percent. The importance of privately held companies to Cincinnati's economy cannot be overstated.

We applaud your accomplishments and look forward to your future successes. For now, take a well-deserved break and enjoy this spotlight with your peers!

Yours truly,

Urban Meyer

Former Head Football Coach
Ohio State University

Urban Meyer is a former college football player and coach. Meyer served as the head coach of the Bowling Green Falcons from 2001 to 2002, the Utah Utes from 2003 to 2004, and the Florida Gators from 2005 to 2010. Meyer became the head coach of the Ohio State Buckeyes from 2011—an undefeated season (12-0)—until his retirement after the 2019 Rose Bowl. As of 2019, he is serving as the assistant athletic director of Ohio State. Meyer is also currently an analyst for Fox Sports. During his time at the University of Florida, he coached the Gators to two BCS National Championship Game victories, during the 2006 and 2008 seasons. Meyer’s winning percentage through the conclusion of the 2009 season (.842) was the highest among all active coaches with a minimum of five full seasons at a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) program. Following his temporary retirement in 2011, he worked as a college football analyst for the television sports network ESPN before succeeding Jim Tressel as Ohio State’s 23rd head football coach. In 2014, he led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten Conference title under his tenure, as well as the program’s eighth national championship. Meyer is one of three coaches to win a major college football national championship at two different universities.

Meyer was born in Toledo, Ohio, grew up in Ashtabula, Ohio, and attended the University of Cincinnati, where he played football as a defensive back.

Thank you to our distinguished award providers

As a way to honor the Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100 recipients, in 2006, Deloitte commissioned The Rookwood Pottery Company to create the unique award provided to the 100 companies. As an organization with a rich Cincinnati history, Rookwood was the clear-cut choice to provide a custom award that symbolizes the proud traditions and history of our city and represents the outstanding achievements of the Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100. This handcrafted piece of American ceramic art honors the private businesses and owners that, through their entrepreneurial spirit and success, do so much for our local economy and community.

Storopack is honored to provide each award with its very own packaging. They have been providing clients with many different types of protective packaging solutions consisting of air, paper, loose fill, and foam cushions since 1978. The packaging used to protect the Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100 Award during transit is Storopack's FOAMplus® pre-molded cushion. All FOAMplus® pre-molded solutions are designed to assure product protection during transit so they will arrive damage-free. It's no wonder Storopack was a clear-cut choice in designing and producing a first-class protective packaging solution for the Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100 Award.

2019 Carl H. Lindner Award for Entrepreneurial and Civic Spirit

The 15th annual Carl H. Lindner Award for Entrepreneurial and Civic Spirit is presented to a business leader who personifies the leadership, business success, and civic involvement that was characterized by Carl Lindner in our community. As we continue to celebrate the life and accomplishments of Mr. Lindner, we are very pleased to present the 2019 Award for Entrepreneurial and Civic Spirit to Rob Sibcy.

Robert N. Sibcy
President
Sibcy Cline, Inc. Realtors®

Rob Sibcy graduated from Washington and Jefferson College with a BS in Economics in 1965. He then joined Sibcy Realtors, as it was then known, as a sales associate. The company had been started by his grandfather in the 1930s and was being run by his father, Robert J. Sibcy.

In 1968 at the age of 25, Sibcy was thrust into the corporate leadership role when his father suffered a heart attack and two strokes that left him partially paralyzed and unable to speak. "I was a sales agent one day and president of the company the next," Rob recalls. Despite the recession of 1969 and the need to learn the business, Sibcy, Inc., thrived under Rob's leadership. "There was no option," he says. "And my father's illness was certainly strong motivation." In 1971, Rob married the former Pamela Dixon.

When Rob was named president, the company had one office and 15 sales associates. In 1980, immediately prior to skyrocketing interest rates, Rob acquired the Robert A. Cline Company and Sibcy Cline, Inc. was born. In August 2018, Rob named his daughter, Robin Sibcy Sheakley, president of Sibcy Cline, Inc. He and his wife, Pam, are active in the daily operations of the company as co-chairmen of the Board. He has remained motivated throughout the growth of the company and its affiliates. Today, there are 22 branch offices with over 1,000 real estate agents in Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky, and Dayton.

Rob has diversified his business interests with the founding of affiliate companies, including Sibcy Cline Mortgage Services, Sibcy Cline Relocation Services, Sibcy Cline Insurance Services, Sibcy Cline Home Services, Sibcy Cline Builder Marketing Services, and Sibcy Cline Title Agency.

Great American Insurance Group

Great American Insurance Group's roots go back to 1872 with the founding of its flagship company, Great American Insurance Company. The members of Great American Insurance Group are subsidiaries of American Financial Group, Inc., an insurance holding company with assets of more than $65 billion. As one of the largest specialty commercial property and casualty insurers in the United States, Great American's business is founded on an entrepreneurial approach that allows "local" decision making for underwriting, claims, and policy servicing in each of our niche operations. Great American Insurance Group is engaged primarily in property and casualty insurance, focusing on specialty commercial products for businesses and in the sale of traditional fixed, fixed-indexed and variable-indexed annuities in the retail, financial institutions, broker-dealer, registered investment advisor and education markets. Each business operation designs products, builds relationships, and creates distribution synergies in the markets it knows and serves. Great American is honored to be a part of the 2019 Deloitte Cincinnati USA 100 program. Today, we salute the honorees and the contributions each has made to strengthen the Greater Cincinnati economic environment, exemplify community leadership, and motivate others to succeed. Through these efforts, Cincinnati is a great place to work and live.
