

CLO Peer-to-Peer Forums

Many of your peers are facing the same challenges you are. There is no better way to share insights and stay current on important issues than by joining them in one of our Peer-to-Peer Forums.

One agenda: yours

We call them “forums” for a reason. Your profession gives you plenty of opportunities to hear other people talk about their priorities. This is the place for you to start a dialogue about the challenges and questions that matter to you—and to share leading practices with people who are in the same position. Deloitte organizes and facilitates the meetings—and then we get out of the way to let you drive the discussion. Many CLOs say these Forums provide them with information and knowledge sharing they don’t get elsewhere.

Connections that count

At the office, you may be the only legal professional of your stature. Your colleagues are a valuable resource and sounding board, but only up to a point. At one of our Forums, you’re surrounded by fellow CLOs who understand your world because they live in it too. You’ll find people from different sectors, industries, or geographies who face the same challenges you do. What can you learn from each other?

Focus and convenience

Offered in a variety of locations, including virtually, our CLO Forums provide a unique opportunity to network with peers, explore challenging issues, and share leading practices in a confidential setting.

If it’s in the news, it’s on the table

Because our participants control the agenda, there is no time lag in bringing the profession’s most timely issues to the fore. If it’s in today’s paper, it’s on your mind—and you’ll find you aren’t alone. From geopolitics to regulatory change to cybersecurity, there’s no limit to what you and your peers can explore.
