

CLO Peer-to-Peer Forums

Take stock

Many of your peers are facing the same challenges you are. There is no better way to share insights and stay current on important issues than by inviting one of your peers to join one of our Peer-to-Peer Forums.

One agenda: Yours

We call them “forums” for a reason—because they’re designed to be a place where you can exchange ideas, not just listen to others talk about their priorities. Forums also provide an opportunity to engage in dialogue about the challenges and questions that matter to you—and to share leading practices with people who are similarly situated.

Deloitte organizes and facilitates the forums—and then we step aside to let you drive the discussion. Many CLOs say these forums provide them with information and knowledge sharing they haven’t found elsewhere.

Connections that count

Forums provide an opportunity to explore the wisdom and insights of legal executives beyond your colleagues at the office. At our forums, you’re surrounded by fellow CLOs who understand the issues and challenges you face. You’ll find legal executives like you from different sectors, industries, or geographies. What can you learn from each other?

Focus and convenience

Offered in a variety of locations, our CLO Forums provide a distinct opportunity to network with peers, explore challenging issues, and share leading practices in a confidential setting.

If it's in the news, it's on the table

Because our participants control the agenda, there is no time lag in bringing the profession's most timely issues to the forefront. If it's in today's paper, it's on your mind—and you'll find you aren't alone. There's no limit to what you and your peers can explore.
