Polaris™

Insight-driven revenue management

Polaris is a revenue management platform that combines robust data management and sector-specific analytics to help organizations proactively optimize commercial decision making.

Polaris can:
- Provide insight into margin drivers and leakage across the business
- Set and track investment decisions across customers
- Proactively price with competitive intelligence
- Track performance against annual pricing goals

There’s no shortage of issues facing businesses today:

- Consumers are increasingly fragmented, demanding best prices, granular assortment, and personalized offers.
- Sales teams need autonomy and flexibility, but are limited in their ability to develop data-driven pricing and discounts.
- Leadership struggles to protect margins and profitability with realistic investments and guardrails, and effective, high-ROI promotion campaigns or discount compliance policies.
- Pricing analysts lack visibility into product costs and cost-to-serve fluctuations to minimize margin leakage.

To address this environment, the Polaris™ revenue management analytics solution incorporates the methods of Deloitte’s top-ranked pricing and profitability management practice to anticipate the questions that help drive business. Faster, more informed decision making in the areas of pricing, promotions, and profitability are possible with Polaris:

- Persona-driven usability: Intuitive user experience tailored to the business processes that revenue management and sales users follow.
- Guided decision workflows: Insights tailored to the decisions users make every day to help answer specific questions by commercial function.
- Interactive data visualizations: Flexible data exploration enabled through highly configurable visualizations.
Potential bottom-line benefits
- 2–10% margin expansion and 5–10% ROI improvement through analytically guided revenue management decisions.
- Quicker, more informed decision making with user-friendly displays and dashboards.
- 50%+ reduced total cost of ownership and faster implementation via SaaS technology.

How clients are realizing value
- A $10 billion+ CPG company achieved over $90 million in revenue and over $70 million in profit with the help of Polaris for shelf-back pricing strategies and category optimization.
- A leading industrial products manufacturer gained $70+ million in profit lift using Polaris to help design its dealer aftermarket pricing strategy and to measure the impact of the pricing execution.

Why Deloitte?
- For decades, Deloitte has been a trusted advisor to leading consumer products and manufacturing/distribution companies, helping them set effective pricing strategies that capture more value.
- Now we’ve applied our technical knowledge, advanced analytics capabilities, and industry experience to deliver Polaris, an end-to-end pricing, promotion, and profitability solution that’s helping companies make smarter decisions and grow profits.
