When bosses walk the walk

Cathy Engelbert, CEO of Deloitte LLP, and Mike Preston, Chief Talent Officer of Deloitte LLP, were featured as part of a well-being campaign in USA Today in major markets across the nation.

They shared their advice on employee engagement, encouraging leaders to lead by example when it comes to developing a culture that supports well-being. They also stressed the importance of not only developing leaders at work, but also developing those leaders in their personal lives and communities.

Deloitte Digital announces acquisition of Heat

Unprecedented creative digital consultancySM model will redefine how businesses deliver the customer journey

Deloitte Digital has joined forces with Heat, an award winning advertising agency in San Francisco. The result is the world's first creative digital consultancySM, a model which transforms the way C-suites approach business in the digital age; the result is greater ownership of, and return on, end-to-end customer experience.

Best companies for leaders

Deloitte has been named by Chief Executive magazine as one of their "Best Companies for Leaders." This is the third year we've received this honor. Companies are measured on their formal leadership process, commitment level of the CEO to the leadership development program, depth of the leadership funnel, and the number of other companies that report recruiting from the company being evaluated.

Deloitte alumni star in profile series

Deloitte alumni have exciting career journeys, and we're pleased to highlight our 'Colleagues for life' in our alumni profile series.

The latest profiles feature Deloitte Consulting LLP alumna Carole Millberg and Deloitte Tax LLP alum Eric Gerstein.

We sat down with Eric, who is now a Vice President of Tax at the family-owned Medline Industries, to reflect on his time with Deloitte and how he applies what he learned, particularly around the importance of mentoring, in his current role.

Carole, who is now Executive Vice President and Head of Wholesale Business Solutions at Wells Fargo, shared about her experience in the Financial Services industry and the support she received from Deloitte as she transitioned to her current role.
