

Joint Resolutions N° DM/047 and DM/029

The United States of America is excluded from the list of countries exempted from Non-immigrant (Tourist) Visa in Ordinary Passports

Effective Date

The resolutions are effective from their publication in Extraordinary Official Gazette N° 6177 on February 28, 2015.

Derogated Law

The Law partially derogates Resolution N° 116, published in Official Gazette N° 38653, dated March 27, 2007.

Purpose

- Excluding the United States of America from the list of countries benefiting from tourist visa-exemption.

- Establishing that nationals from the United States of America shall follow the procedures required to obtain a tourist visa.

Applicability

- Nationals from the United States of America, with no special conditions, holding an ordinary passport issued by the relevant authorities of that country.
- Obtaining a tourist visa requires compliance with regular procedures and requirements as set forth in the country's regular migration control standards.
