Import Licenses, Non-local Production Certificates and Insufficient Production Certificates under the authority of CENCOEX and Vice-Presidency

Decree N° 1192, dictated by the President of the Republic on August 25, 2014, was published in Official Gazette of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela N° 40482. The Decree establishes that Import Licenses, Non-local Production Certificates (CNP) and Insufficient Production Certificates (CIP) shall be issued, amended, granted and renewed through Centro Nacional de Comercio Exterior (CENCOEX), and authorized only upon prior approval of the Executive Vice-President.

Import Licenses

Import Licenses, Non-local Production Certificates (CNP) and Insufficient Production Certificates (CIP) shall be issued, amended, granted and revoked through CENCOEX, and authorized only upon prior approval of the Executive Vice-President.

Licenses and certificates-related mechanisms and procedures shall be established by CENCOEX in Administrative Rulings.

Validity of licenses obtained prior to the new Decree

Import Licenses, Non-local Production Certificates (CNP) and Insufficient Production Certificates (CIP), issued prior to the effective date of this

Decree shall remain effective until their date of expiration, for items and number of shipments therein authorized.

Exceptions

The Executive Vice-President, by means of Resolutions and upon prior consideration of the opinion of CENCOEX, may exempt the submission of Import Licenses, Non-local Production Certificates (CNP) or Insufficient Production Certificates (CIP), in case of evidence supporting the fact that the exempted item is not produced in the country or its production is insufficient.

Effective date

The Decree is effective from the date of its publication in Official Gazette of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.
