Guidance ruling

CIT incentives for merged and expansion investment projects

1. Merged projects:

Companies operating merged or consolidated projects can inherit the CIT incentives of the merged projects for the remaining period, if they continue to meet the tax incentive conditions.

If the merged project meets different incentivized conditions, the company can enjoy CIT incentives for each respective condition for the remaining incentivized period.

2. Expansion investment projects:

Companies carrying out the development and expansion of their existing investment projects can apply the following CIT incentives:

- The existing project for the remaining period (including the preferential tax rate and any exemption/reduction, if applicable); or
- The tax exemption and tax reduction for the additional income generated from the expansion project (preferential tax rates not allowed) equivalent to the time of exemption and reduction applicable to new investment projects in the same incentivized area.

(Official Letter No. 23075/CTBDU-TTHT dated 27 September 2023 issued by Binh Duong Province Tax Department)

CIT incentives for processing activities

Companies carrying out new investment projects in the field of processing activities, may be entitled to CIT incentives if the following conditions are met:

- The processing activity involve investing in machinery, equipment, workforce, etc., and receiving all raw materials (or main materials) from a client under a signed processing contract to produce finished products that are delivered to clients (except for commercial processing activities as specified in the Commercial Law); and
- The new investment project is located in the industrial park (except for industrial parks located in areas with favorable socio-economic conditions),

The following CIT incentives may be available:

- CIT-exemption for 02 years from the year taxable income is generated; and
- 50% CIT reduction for the subsequent 04 years

Guidance on Import Duty Refund for on-spot import declarations with import duty paid

On 15 September 2023, the General Department of Customs issued Official Letter No. 4795/TCHQ-TXNK providing guidance on the refund of import duties for on-spot import declarations, as follows:

- Regarding on-spot export-import procedures: Transactions with foreign enterprises with a presence in Vietnam, as provided for in clause 5, Article 3, of Law on Foreign Trade Management, are not considered to be on-spot export-import under point c, clause 1, Article 35, Decree No. 08/2015/ND-CP. Therefore, the enterprises are not allowed to register on-spot import declarations.
- Regarding customs procedures for goods stored in bonded warehouses:
 - ✓ Bonded warehouse tenants' goods that are allowed to enter and stored in bonded warehouses include:
 - ❖ Vietnamese goods that have completed export procedures;
 - ❖ goods from overseas awaiting import into Vietnam, or awaiting export to third countries
 - ✓ Goods moving-in, and moving-out of bonded warehouses, must fulfill customs procedures in accordance with the provisions of the law.

- Regarding import duty refunds for on-spot import declarations: import duty refunds are granted in accordance with the provisions of Article 36, Decree No. 134/2016/ND-CP for:
 - ✓ Goods imported under the on-spot arrangement for which import duty has been paid and which are used to manufacture finished goods (“FGs”); and
 - ✓ Where the FGs were exported overseas, or to the Free-trade-zone.

VAT refund for on-spot export transactions

On 26 September 2023, the General Department of Taxation issued Official Letter No. 4271/TCT-CS responding to the Binh Duong Tax Department, on VAT policy, as follows:

- Based on the opinion of the General Department of Customs in Official Letter No. 3622/TCHQ-GSQL dated 12 July 2023, in case the Customs Authority determines that on-spot export declarations do not comply with the provision under point c, clause 1, Article 35, Decree No. 08/2015/ND-CP, the Tax Authority will not process the VAT refund, because the transaction does not meet the legal requirements for customs declaration;
- The General Department of Customs requests the Binh Duong Tax Department to provide guidance to the enterprises based on:
 - ✓ coordination with Binh Duong Customs Department;
 - ✓ the VAT regulations, and relevant legal provisions regarding on-spot exported-imported goods; and
 - ✓ the actual situation of the enterprises.
