

Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC

Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC advises Inovar, Inc. on its sale to Spartronics LLC, a portfolio company of OEP Capital Advisors L.P.

Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC (DCF) acted as the exclusive financial advisor to North Logan, Utah-based Inovar, Inc. (Inovar or the Company), a high-mix, low-volume Tier 3 electronics manufacturing service (EMS) provider, on its recent sale to Spartronics LLC, a portfolio company of OEP Capital Advisors L.P.

Founded in 1998, Inovar is led by a tenured leadership team and specializes in providing engineering, manufacturing, product assemblies, and aftermarket services. Inovar has built a blue-chip client base of original equipment manufacturers in the aerospace, defense, medical, and industrials markets, serving clients through two state-of-the-art facilities located in North Logan, Utah and Tecate, Mexico.

"The Deloitte Corporate Finance team was instrumental throughout the deal process, and by our side the entire way. Their experience in the EMS space, as well as working with privately owned middle-market businesses helped provide important guidance that led to a successful transaction for our shareholders. We are excited about the new opportunities afforded to our clients by this combination, and look forward to continuing to grow with our new partners in Spartronics and One Equity Partners," said Blake Kirby, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Inovar.

"Blake and his team have extensive experience working in the EMS industry, and Inovar's strong growth since its founding is a testament to the team's hard work and dedication. This partnership helps enable both companies to provide premium offerings to their common customers, while also allowing Spartronics to expand its North American facility footprint," said Eric Andreozzi, managing director, Deloitte Corporate Finance LLC.
