

Deloitte School of Tax & Legal VAT Back to Basics

We have the pleasure of inviting you to our popular “VAT Back to Basics” workshop.

A good understanding of the key principles of the VAT Act is essential to all businesses and can prevent unnecessary cash outflows due to overpaying of output tax or under-claiming input tax.

On top of this, SARS will regularly scrutinise the VAT compliance of VAT vendors, and non-compliance can lead to costly penalties and interest which could easily have been prevented.

It is therefore fundamental for all staff who provide input in the VAT return process to have the necessary knowledge to make the right VAT decisions and training is one of the simplest and most effective methods to ensure this.

Our VAT Back to basics workshop not only discusses the key VAT principles, but focuses on applying the theory to as many practical examples of day-to-day transactions and decisions that a debtors and creditors clerk may encounter and on the common mistakes made in practice.

The workshop material will include electronic course notes and practical case studies as references to apply to the types of scenarios you encounter when back at the office.

The agenda for the workshop is as follows:
