Xcelerator

Explore connections that turn innovation into impact

Xcelerator is a unique Deloitte approach that helps our clients experience the potential of digital transformation, as well as the proven solutions that will empower them to rapidly achieve excellence and a competitive edge.

Both immersive and impactful, Xcelerator aims to facilitate our clients' growth through the strategic use of new technology, driven by our global experience and world-class experts.

By creating an integrated suite of offerings, each led by pioneers in their respective fields, Xcelerator enables Deloitte clients to quickly connect with breakthrough opportunities that will ensure sustainable growth and future excellence.

The Xcelerator experience is a truly customised journey through our evolving compilation of offerings, which are all designed to accelerate our clients' ambitions to excel in this dynamic era of digital transformation.

Garage

The Garage is where virtual becomes reality. It's a hands-on, co-creative experience that brings a diverse crowd of thinkers, designers, strategists, engineers and experts together to tackle wicked problems. Together we'll take ideas from brainstorm to prototype so that your next launch provides the greatest experience to your customers.

Greenhouse

Our unique Greenhouse experience allows Deloitte and client teams to connect meaningfully in a specially designed physical environment to plan and develop new strategies. This creatively facilitated process accelerates decisions.

Future Factory

The Future Factory provides an immersive environment for clients by hosting and showcasing industry applied solutions that feature exponential technologies. With a purpose of maximising the impact of digital to business requirements, the Future Factory not only demonstrates what the future could look like for our clients but also includes tools that can be implemented immediately to enable almost instant results.

Booster

Building on the experience Deloitte has in launching new offerings and scaling products globally, Booster identifies and develops promising start-ups that are using exponential technologies to solve problems while making a positive impact in their communities. Booster equips them with the skills and tools needed to succeed, as well as access to Deloitte's network, assets and capabilities.

Cyber Intelligence Centre

The Deloitte Cyber Intelligence Centre helps clients develop risk-based, proactive cybersecurity strategies to prevent, detect and respond to cyber-attacks. Deloitte has designed a global cyber defence network that enables our clients to safeguard their IT assets by implementing early detection controls, ultimately preventing potential financial, reputational and operational damage.

The CxO Lab

Deloitte CxO Labs are designed to support and connect with executives as they transition into new roles. Facilitated by senior Deloitte leaders, these tailored, immersive engagements help executives to define tangible priorities for their new roles and equip them with the means to achieve them.

The Executive Lounge

A dedicated place to strengthen business connections or a quiet haven to avoid distractions, the Executive Lounge is at the exclusive disposal of our senior executive clients. The Executive Lounge is situated in our new Waterfall building, offering our high-flyers a convenient waypoint where they can relax, regroup or reconnect with their peers.

Alchemy by Deloitte

Alchemy by Deloitte provides bespoke executive education for senior executives and leaders of organisations. Drawing on world-class faculty from within Deloitte, as well as leading business schools, our programmes are designed to advance executive leadership ability and strategically build human capital competitiveness.
